On the Cover

Before this season is finished, Nealon Greene might have more Clemson records than Raymond Priester. Greene threw for at least 200 yards in each of his first three games this year, the first Clemson player in history to do that. Clemson's record setting quarterback grew up in Yonkers, NY, not your typical upbringing for the quarterback at a Southern football power. Lamont Hall shares today's cover with Greene. Like the rest of Clemson's offense, Hall is having a memorable senior year as Clemson throws the ball at a record rate.

Today's Game

Tony Horne ranks in the Top 25 nationally in four different categories.

By Tim Bourret

Horne Ranked in top 25 in Four Categories

Clemson senior receiver Tony Horne ranks in the top 25 in the nation in four different statistical categories. The native of Rockingham, NC who already has more receptions (31) than any Tiger had all of last year, is fifth in the country in receptions per game (7.75), 24th in reception yards per game (96.25), 11th in kickoff returns (29.6 per return) and 15th in all-purpose rushing (170.25 yards per game).

Horne has had three consecutive 100-yard receiving games to open the1997 season, the first time since the 1969 season that a Tiger player has had three straight 100-yard receiving games. That year Charlie Waters had at least 100 yards in the first three contests, his senior year: Virginia (4-132), Georgia (8-101) and Georgia Tech (7-101). Horne had his streak broken at Georgia Tech last weekend. He already has two double figure reception games this year, just the sixth and seventh double figure receiving games in Clemson history. He is the first to have two in the same season, only Perry Tuttle had two in a career.

Horne also leads the ACC in receptions per game. No Clemson player has led the ACC in that category since 1980 when Perry Tuttle turned the trick. The Clemson record for total catches in a season is 58 by Jerry Butler in 1978. The school receiving yardage record is 915 by Perry Tuttle in 1980.

Horne has now moved into the top 10 in Clemson history in both receptions and reception yards. He went over the 1000-yard mark in career receiving yards at NC State and now has 1228 yards for his career, 9th best in Clemson history. Horne also has 81 career receptions, ninth highest in Clemson history. He is 19 catches away from becoming just the fifth 100-catch receiver in Clemson history.

He had 267 all-purpose running yards against Florida State, who entered the game with the nation's top ranked defense. He had 131 yards in receiving on 10 catches, gained 109 yards in kickoff returns and 27 yards on punt returns in his fine all-around game against the Seminoles.

Horne's 267-yard total ranks second in Clemson history and was just seven yards away from Terrence Flagler's single game Clemson record. Flagler had 209 yards rushing and 65 receiving against Wake Forest in 1986. Horne's teammate, Raymond Priester, has the third best all-purpose running performance with 263 yards (all rushing) against Duke in 1995.

Clemson vs. UTEP

Clemson and UTEP have never met in football. The two schools have met four times in basketball and UTEP has a 3-1 lead in the series. The two teams last met on the hardcourt in 1982-83, a 69-59 UTEP victory. The two schools have never met in any other sport.

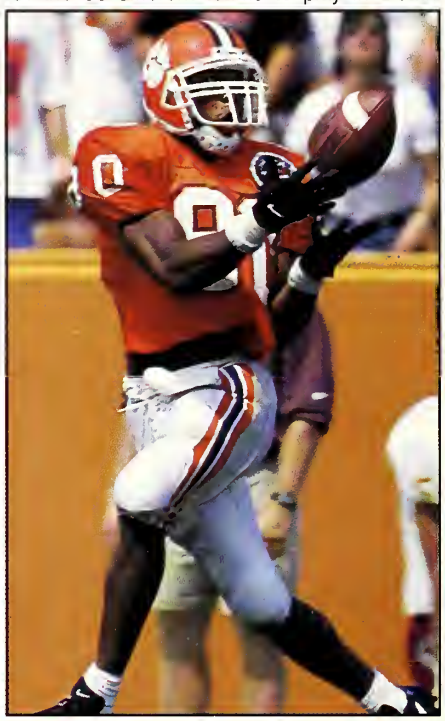
This will be the first time Clemson has faced a team that is currently in the Western Athletic Conference since the opening game of 1993 when the Tigers defeated UNLV,24-14. Prior to that season, Clemson's last game against a team currently in the WAC took place in 1980, a 19-3 Clemson win over Rice in the season opener. At the time of the game, Rice was actually in the now defunct Southwest Conference. This is just the second time Clemson has met a WAC conference school while the team has been in the WAC.

Clemson has a 7-4 record against teams currently in the WAC, 4-3 against Rice, 1-0 vs. UNLV and 2-1 against TCU. Clemson defeated TCU in the 1959 Bluebonnet Bowl, 23-7, one of the top wins in Clemson history. Bob Lilly , who went on to a Hall of Fame career in the NFL with the Dallas Cowboys, had TCU ranked seventh in the nation entering the contest. But, Clemson scored 20 points in the fourth period in what Frank Howard called one of the top Clemson performances of his 30 years at Clemson.

While Clemson is 7-4 vs. the WAC, UTEP is 1-1-1 against the ACC. That includes a 47-20 victory over Florida State in 1954. The Miners are 0-1-1 against North Carolina, including a thrilling 45-40 loss at Chapel Hill in 1993.

Miners Make Long Trip to Clemson

UTEP will be the 39th different team to play in Death Valley since the stadium opened in1942. Clemson has a 28-10 record against first-time opponents in Death Valley. Of the 38 different teams to play in Death Valley, only seven have a winning record against Clemson, and only four (Georgia, Auburn, Alabama and Florida State) have a winning record among schools who have come to Death Valley more than once.



Tony Horne is 5th in the nation in receptions.

Overall, Clemson is 193-72-1 in Clemson Memorial Stadium since the opener in 1942, including a 91-27-5 record (.760) against non-conference foes. UTEP will be making the longest trip to Death Valley to face the Tigers since UNLV in 1993. Other teams that have made long trips to Clemson for a football game are Long Beach State (1990), Texas A&M (1973), TCU (1965) and Notre Dame (1977).

Harbison Coached at UTEP in 1994

Current Clemson secondary coach Charlie Harbison was the secondary coach at UTEP in 1994. Harbison is in his third season with the Tigers and has already coached three players who have gone on to an NFL career. His 1995 secondary featured Brian Dawkins, now with the Philadelphia Eagles and Leomont Evans, now with the Washington Redskins. That 1995 Clemson secondary ranked in the top 15 in the nation in passing efficiency defense and in the top 10 in total number of interceptions. His 1996 team featured cornerback Dexter McCleon, who is now with the St. Louis Rams.

Bailey Coached against Clemson in 1981

Charlie Bailey will be coaching against Clemson as a head coach for the first time in his career, but it will not be the first time he has been across the field from a Clemson team. In 1981, as defensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Kentucky, UTEP's head coach faced the Tigers in Lexington.

His defense shut out Clemson in the first half and Kentucky held a 3-0 lead at intermission against a Tiger team that would win the National Championship at season's end. Clemson scored three second-half touchdowns and won, 21-3. Still, Clemson had just 278 yards of total offense against Bailey's Kentucky defense that day.

Bailey has been a head coach at Memphis State and UTEP in his career. His Memphis State team upset Alabama in 1987, 13-10 and the next year those Tigers defeated Florida in Gainesville, 17-11. He has also served as an assistant coach at University of Tampa, Miami (FL), Rice, Kentucky, Pittsburgh, The Tampa Bay Bandits of the USFL, Florida, and the Orlando Thunder of the World League.

UTEP Update

UTEP is coming off a 24-17 victory over New Mexico State. The Miners came into that game averaging just 90 yards per game on the ground, but busted loose for 239 yards, almost as many yards as UTEP had in the first three games of this year combined.

Joseph Polk led the Miners against New Mexico with 115 yards rushing, his third career 100-yard rushing game at UTEP. Last year Polk had 148 yards against New Mexico and also had 104 yards against a 25th ranked Utah team. Polk is the top rusher for the Miners with 210 yards on 57 attempts and two touchdowns. He was a key to the Miners controlling the clock for 38:02 against New Mexico State. UTEP ran an incredible 94 plays against New Mexico State, 67 rushing and 26 passing. They had 28 first downs in the contest.

UTEP quarterback Craig Strickland connected on 11-22 passes for 128 yards in a reserve role behind starter John Rayborn, who suffered a separated shoulder against New Mexico State. Strickland is 29-68 for the year for 314 yards, while Rayborn was 21-57 for 305 yards and three touchdowns.

One area of concern for Clemson is the punt return ability of UTEP's Javier Sanchez. He is averaging 18 yards per punt return this year and ranks seventh in the nation in that category. Clemson must improve in this area over the last two weeks, as the Tigers have given up 246 punt return yards the last two weeks.

Notes on the UTEP Program

*UTEP has had some prominent players go on to a career in the NFL. The list includes Chris Jacke, placekicker on the Super Bowl Champion Green Bay Packers last year, and Don Maynard, NFL Hall of Fame player who was on the New York Jets Super Bowl Championship team of 1969. Contemporary players in pro football from UTEP include Seth Joyner of the Phoenix Cardinals and Tony Tolbert of the Dallas Cowboys.

*Former Houston Oilers Head Coach Bum Phillips was the head coach at UTEP in 1962. He posted a 5-4 record.

*UTEP last appeared in a bowl game in 1988 when it faced Southern Mississippi in the Independence Bowl. Southern Miss won that game 38-18. Brett Favre was the quarterback for Southern Miss in that contest. UTEP has played in nine bowl games in its history.

Tigerama Next Friday Night

Next weekend Virginia comes to Clemson for the annual Homecoming game. The festivities begin Friday evening with Tigerama. The pep Rally and show at Memorial Stadium begins at 7:00 PM. This year's Tigerama is entitled "The Magical World of Clemson". Tickets are available all over Clemson this week and are $2 in advance. Tickets are $3 at the stadium gates on the night of the program. The annual fireworks display will also be a highlight of the evening.

Tiger Paw Present at Winston Cup Racing

The Clemson Tiger Paw adorned the hood and quarterpanels of driver Ward Burton's #22 MBNA Pontiac at the Mountain Dew Southern 500 at Darlington Raceway last month.

MBNA America Bank, N.A. is the official credit card issuer of the Clemson Alumni Association and NASCAR. The Clemson card features the Tiger Paw and the NASCAR card offers a choice of the image of any of 43 drivers.

In 1994, Clemson University initiated a motorsports engineering program in its mechanical engineering curriculum, and two of the current graduate students, Jon Lampert and Brad Eichenlaub, were guests of the Bill Davis racing team in the garage and on pit road at Darlington. Later in the current semester, Davis's MBNA team will play host to a daylong, hands-on session for Clemson's motorsports students at the team's shop in High Point, NC.

Clemson Offense on Record Pace

It is early in the season, but Clemson is on a record pace in terms of passing offense in a number of categories on an individual and team basis. Clemson is averaging 242.5 passing yards per game, 67 yards per game ahead of the Clemson record of 175.5 per game set in 1969, Frank Howard's final season as head coach. Clemson is also on a record pace in terms of pass attempts, completion percentage and completions per game.

Individually, Nealon Greene has averaged 224.7 passing yards per game, 75 yards a game ahead of the individual record of 149.1 yards per game by Jimmy Addison in 1966. Greene's 17.8 completions per game is also far ahead of Tommy Kendrick's 12.1 completions per game in 1970. Greene has averaged 244.5 yards per game in total offense, ahead of the previous record of 180.3 yards per game by Steve Fuller in 1978.

The Tiger Paw was on display at Darlington last month.

In terms of receiving, Tony Horne is averaging 7.8 receptions and 96.3 reception yards per game, both far ahead of Clemson records. The record for receptions per game for a season is 4.9 by Charlie Waters in 1969 and the reception yardage per game mark is 83.1 by Perry Tuttle in 1980. Horne is also 50 yards per game ahead of the all-purpose running record. Through four games he has 170.3 all-purpose yards per game, ahead of the record of 122 yards per game by Ray Mathews in 1948.

Category	1997	Record
Passing Yards/Game	242.5	175.5 (1969)
Pass Attempts/Game	32.0	27.5 (1970)
Pass Completions/Game	19.3	13.2 (1970)
Completion Percentage	60.2	60.0 (1989)

Clemson's ACC Leaders

Clemson has the ACC's leading rusher (Raymond Priester) and leading receiver (Tony Horne). Priester led the ACC in rushing in 1995, but Clemson has not had the leading receiver in the ACC since Perry Tuttle in 1980. Priester has just over 100 yards per game rushing and Horne is averaging 7.8 catches per game.

It is very unusual, at any time of the season, to have the league's leading rusher and leading receiver. In fact, you have to go back to 1963 to find the last time an ACC team has done that over the course of a season, and it has happened just twice in league history. In 1963 Ken Williard of North Carolina led the ACC in rushing with 648 yards. That same year his teammate Bob Lacey, tied for the league lead in receiving with 48 receptions.

The only other time in ACC history that the same team has had the top rusher and receiver was in 1957 when Virginia's Fred Polzer led the league in receptions with 25, and teammate Jim Bakhtiar led the league in rushing with 822 yards.

Clemson 9th in Rushing Defense

Clemson is giving up just 73.3 rushing yards per game this season, ninth best figure in the country. The Tigers have given up just one rushing touchdown all season and opponents have just two rushes over 20 yards all season, the longest a 26-yard run. In fact, Clemson's defense has given up just six touchdowns in four games.

Clemson held Florida State to just 31 yards rushing, the fewest rushing yards by a Florida State team in the decade of the 1990s. You have to go back to the Memphis State game of 1989 to find the last time Florida State had fewer than 31 yards rushing. Bobby Bowden's team had just 25 yards rushing in that 57-20 victory over Memphis State.

Over the last 20 years, Clemson has a 78-8-1 record when holding a team under 100 yards rushing, a .902 winning percentage. Clemson did lose the Florida State game despite holding the Seminoles to 31 yards rushing. Clemson had won 12 straight games when holding the opposition under 100.

Clemson has a senior dominated offense, led by Raymond Priester, Tony Horne and Nealon Greene, but bright prospects for the future were shown last week at Georgia Tech. Sophomores Mal Lawyer, Terry Witherspoon and Brian Wofford all had their best days as a Tiger in the game in Atlanta.

Witherspoon had 12 rushes for 61 yards and a touchdown, best performance by a Clemson fullback this year and most rushing yards by a Clemson fullback since 1995 when Emory Smith had 101 yards at South Carolina. Witherspoon also scored his first college touchdown on a one-yard run.

Lawyer, who caught just one pass for 11 yards in 11 games a year ago, had four catches for 79 yards and his first collegiate touchdown at Georgia Tech. His touchown was a 30-yard score and the 79 yards were his career high for receiving yards as a Tiger. Lawyer has had at least three catches in every game this season.

Wofford, Clemson's third leading receiver last year, had six catches at Georgia Tech, his career high for number of receptions. He had 52 yards on those catches and now has 10 receptions, two for touchdowns this year.

Nealon Greene

Clemson quarterback has overcome constant rash of injuries to be one of Clemson's best ever.

by Brett Berg

Drive. This may be the best word to describe Clemson quarterback Nealon Greene. For Greene, not only will he drive the Tigers offense against UTEP today, but for him it is more mental than physical. It is a state of mind that leads Greene to strive to be the best in everything he does. And it is hard to argue with the fact that he is one of the best quarterbacks in Clemson history.

As of today's game against the Miners out of El Paso, Greene owns the Clemson record for career completion's with 349 completion's, which he broke against Georgia Tech last week. This is more than Ring of Honor member and NFL quarterback Steve Fuller, more than three-time ACC Champion Rodney Williams, and more than Homer Jordan, who led the Tigers to the national championship.

Against Georgia Tech last week, Greene moved into second place on the all-time career passing yardage list with 4,405 yards. At his current pace, he could claim the top spot in today's game, needing only 243 yards to take over first place from Rodney Williams. He moved ahead of Fuller in last week's game at Georgia Tech.

Today's game may also place Greene second on the Clemson Career Total Offense list. Currently he has 5,206 yards, only 204 yards behind Rodney Williams. Nealon should catch Steve Fuller by the Wake Forest game and take over the top spot with 6,097 yards.

Greene can become the fifth quarterback to win 20 games with a win today and should take over second place by the end of the season. He is also currently third on the all-time completion percentage list with a .553 completion percentage.

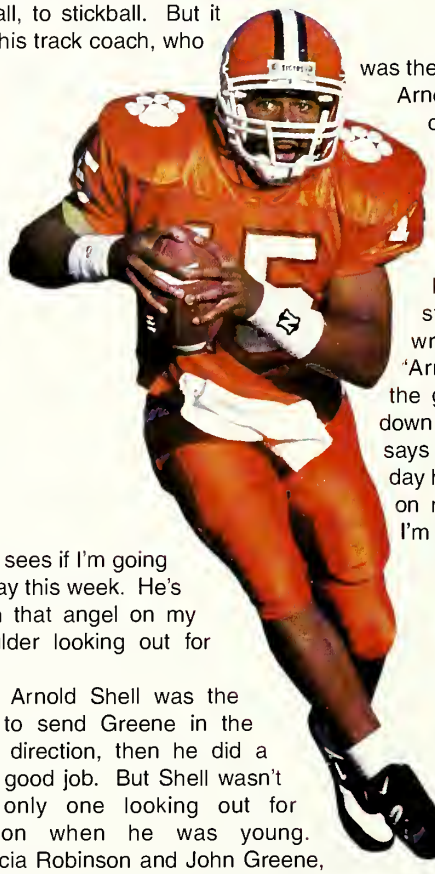
So what does Greene think about all of these records? "I don't think about records much," says Greene. "When I pick up the paper and read about how I am closing in on this record or that, it is nice to think about. To be coming close to records that were set by some great quarterbacks, like Steve Fuller makes me proud. I have a lot of respect for what Steve Fuller, Rodney Williams and many other Clemson quarterbacks accomplished."

Greene has come a long way on the road to breaking records for the Tigers. All the way from Yonkers, NY to be specific. Growing up in New York, he participated in all kinds of athletics, ranging from football, to basketball, to stickball. But it was his track coach, who was the most influential. Arnold Shell was the coach who looked out for Greene. He was always there to set him straight when he could have strayed in the wrong direction. "Arnold Shell was the guy who led me down the right path," says Greene. "To this day he still checks up on me, checks how I'm doing, sees if I'm hurt, sees if I'm going to play this week. He's been that angel on my shoulder looking out for me."



Greene broke the Clemson completion record last week at Georgia Tech.

If Arnold Shell was the one to send Greene in the right direction, then he did a very good job. But Shell wasn't the only one looking out for Nealon when he was young. Patricia Robinson and John Greene, Nealon's parents, also kept him on the straight and narrow.

Greene's parents have been there for him throughout his years. "They help me when I get down on myself and when the critics are doubting you, they keep me going," says Greene. "They lift me up when I am down, when I am hurt or sick; my mom knows every time I've ever been sick. They've been there through thick and thin. Every time I have a bad game, they cheer me up, they keep me going every day."

That support group from Yonkers will board a bus to Maryland when the Tigers battle the Terps on October 25. Nealon wishes he could ride the bus with everyone and talk strategy with his mom, who's football IQ has steadily grown over the years. This reunion in College Park should help cut down on Nealon's phone bills.

Coming out of Lincoln High School in Yonkers, Greene was ranked among the top 10 option quarterbacks in the nation by Tom Lemming's Prep Football Report and in the top three players in the state of New York by SuperPrep. Greene's high school coach, who was a truck driver in the morning and football coach the rest of the day, was Anthony Fiorelli. Coach Fiorelli and Greene still talk about defenses and strategy when they get the chance.

Most people in Yonkers were pushing Greene to attend Syracuse, which is only a couple of hours from home. Greene did choose the orange, but thankfully for Clemson fans, he chose the orange Tiger Paw. There were many reasons in Greene's decision to attend Clemson, ranging from the excitement of Southern football, to the warm climate (Greene hates snow), but the most important reason was that he felt comfortable here.

Coach Richard Bisaccia was recruiting Greene out of high school, originally for South Carolina, and he impressed Greene. "When he was recruiting me, he was straight forward," says Greene. "He explained that I had the opportunity to come in and play and that if I worked hard, learned every day, and came out to compete, I might get that opportunity, but there were no guarantees. He still keeps on top of me, not letting me settle for second best. He's a great guy with a great family."

That day Nealon signed with Clemson goes down as the most memorable he recalls about Clemson. "Getting the opportunity to sign, to be able to get a scholarship to come to Clemson, that was my proudest moment. It made my mom happy. I was one of a select few, to be able to go through rough times, to deal with them, and get the opportunity to obtain a scholarship."

Another memorable moment for Greene, and one that stands out in most Clemson football players' minds, is running down the hill. "It is the best feeling," says Greene. "The first time I ran down the hill, I was so excited. You get off the bus, look at the fans, stand at the top and rub the rock. The crowd's going wild, the adrenaline starts pumping. It really is the most exciting 25 seconds in college football."

Greene, who's missed out on the "hill experience" so far this season, being a captain for both of Clemson's previous two home games, says he's sure to run down the hill again. "I will definitely run the hill against North Carolina. It will be my last time, so I'm looking forward to doing it again."

Another milestone is upon Greene in the coming months. Not only will he break numerous Clemson records for passing and total offense, but he will receive his degree in industrial education. Greene, who made last spring's honor roll, credits Vickery Hall with helping him grow academically.

"Since I've been here, my study habits have gotten better and my grades have gotten better," says Greene. "Coming out of high school, I didn't have the best grades, but Vickery has helped me and a lot of others. Vickery Hall gives us the chance to go into the classroom and compete. I'm still learning, I'm always learning."

Greene is also a member of LIFEline, a leadership group for the Clemson football team. The group is composed of 13 football players and they provide a peer leadership group for the entire team. "I'm really enjoying that, being a sponsor to the freshmen, giving them the right tools they need. I enjoy LIFEline, it's helped us bring the team together more."

Over the past three seasons Greene has grown on the field and off. Having to learn new offenses and opposing teams defenses, along with math, science, English, and history.

Learning the new offense has been more fun. "I'm really enjoying the offense. It's more open and I have more opportunities. It's nice to be able to be involved with the other guys more, like Mal (Lawyer), Tony (Horne), Lamont (Hall), and Brian (Wofford). I think the fans were waiting for it, and now its here."

The bond Greene has created over the years with his teammates is strong. Being the strongest with the fellow seniors who have been through it all together. "We understand each other and have a bond between us. When Raymond (Priester) sets a record we all share in that because we are a team. We are proud and happy for him."

Greene not only appreciates his teammates, but is very much appreciated himself. His biggest fan? Head coach Tommy West. Coach West probably knows more about Greene's drive and his mental toughness than anyone. "I've been saying for three years now, that he's a tough, tough competitor," says West. "Nealon keeps a level head on the field, he is a great competitor. He's tough and he's hard nosed."

Coach West has seen Greene produce under adverse conditions and make plays when there was nothing there. He's also seen him play through pain, especially this year. "I've seen him do it up at North Carolina (1994) with a separated shoulder and I've seen him do it last year when he looked even worse in the warm-ups with his knee, he played the whole game at Florida State. And, this year at NC State on the final scoring drive, he playing on pure guts."

Greene's drive has led him on the football field to engineer numerous comebacks and touchdowns. His drive off of the field has led him in life and to earn a college degree. That drive is also ready for the next step - the real world. "I'm ready for the real world and one day soon I can take it on."

Greene's drive has brought him a long way, from the streets of Yonkers playing before 200 people, to nationally televised games in front of 83,000 rabid Clemson fans and numerous television viewers. From a timid freshman in his first game facing the Georgia Bulldogs in Sanford Stadium, to a confident senior on the verge of breaking numerous Clemson records and receiving a college degree.

So, when Nealon Greene steps on the field today, take a good hard look and be prepared to see history in the making, for in front of you stands one of the greatest quarterbacks to ever put on the orange and white.

Dr. Deno Curris

Dr. Deno Curris has been a president of a major university since 1973.

Since becoming Clemson University's 13th president on May 22, 1995, Constantine W. "Deno" Curris has begun to build a vision for the future based on identifying and enhancing those qualities that make the university distinctive.

In working to create a strong foundation to support Clemson's goal of becoming a national university, Curris has redirected resources to critical areas, set the recruitment of top students and faculty as well as an increase in research funding as high priorities, and established a select commission of alumni and friends to offer advice and counsel.

The Curris File

Born: November 13, 1940
Spouse: Jo Hern Curris
Children: Robert Alexander, Elena Diane

Education:
B.A. in Political Science (magna cum laude) University of Kentucky, 1962
M.A. in Political Science, University of Illinois, 1965
Ed.D. in Higher Education, University of Kentucky, 1967

Employment Resume:
President and Professor of Public Policy, University of Northern Iowa, Cedar Falls, Iowa 1983-1995

President, Murray State University, Murray, Kentucky, 1973-1983

Vice President and Dean of the Faculty, West Virginia Institute of Technology, Montgomery, WV, 1971-73

Dean of Student Personnel Programs, Marshall University, Huntington, WV, 1969-71

Director of Academic Programs, West Virginia Board of Education, Charleston, WV, 1968-69

Vice President and Dean of the Faculty, Midway (KY) College, 1965-68

Assistant Coordinator, University of Kentucky Centennial Celebration, 1964-65

Curris' first challenge upon coming to Clemson was filling key administrative vacancies and building a sense of teamwork and cooperation among deans and executive officers—a task which is largely completed. In addition, he has established a goal of recruiting more young professors to counter a graying of the Clemson faculty.

Another immediate priority was increasing Clemson's involvement with state leaders and working with other institutions to reverse declining state funding trends. The efforts helped secure an increase in general state funding for higher education as well as a capital bond bill designed primarily for the state's colleges and universities.

Curris has also focused more attention on the university's information technology infrastructure, which had often been neglected during years of budget cuts during the early 90's. Using $2 million of savings from restructuring, Curris funded a plan to extend the information technology network campus-wide, providing network access to all faculty and bringing 2,000 dormitory rooms online. It was merely the first step in a long-range plan to attain and maintain technological currency in the classroom.

Another of Curris' early accomplishments has been upgrading many basic student and administrative services, such as admissions recruiting, plant maintenance and class registration systems.

Curris also believes in seeking input from experts outside the university. The Commission on the Future of Clemson University was created by the Board of Trustees on Curris' recommendation to build on earlier planning and self-study efforts. In May, more than 300 alumni and friends—leaders in industry and the professions—came to campus for the Commission's first meeting, to hear reports on the university's goals and offer perspective and insight to help the university plan for the 21st century.

Building strong foundations is a tested strategy that Curris used while president of both Murray State University—where he oversaw extensive campus renovations and improvements—and at the University of Northern Iowa—where he led a move to raise admissions standards and strengthen academic programs.

A native of Lexington, Kentucky, Curris received a bachelor's degree in political science from the University of Kentucky, a master's in political science and public administration from the University of Illinois, and a doctorate in higher education from the University of Kentucky.

Curris is also a national leader in higher education. He is a past Chairman of the Board of Directors of the American Association of State Colleges and Universities and was a featured participant in a 1997 national videoteleconference on "The New Public University: How Do We Compete in a Changing Environment?" Curris is also one of 25 presidents currently serving on the national Kellogg Commission on the Future of Land-Grant Universities.

When his schedule permits, Curris enjoys gardening, fishing, and reading. He is married to Jo Hern Curris, a tax attorney and author, and they have a son Robert Alexander, and a daughter, Elena Diane.

Head Coach Tommy West

Tiger mentor has coached in seven Bowl Games for Clemson

Improvement has been the watchword of the Clemson football program since Tommy West became the head coach in December of 1993. Within each of his first three seasons his teams have shown significant improvement and gained strength as the season progressed.

His Clemson resume as a head coach includes three bowl appearances, a top 25 ranking in every season, eight road wins and five wins over AP Top 25 teams. His teams have risen in the ACC standings each year, to a number-two finish in 1996. If his 1997 team can appear in a bowl it would be the first time since 1989-91 era that Clemson has appeared in a bowl game three straight years.

Each of his first three seasons has seen the Tigers make a late season run. In 1994, with the youngest offense in Clemson history, one that started seven freshmen at times, the Tigers won three of their last four games, including a victory at 12th ranked North Carolina.

The run of success at the end of the 1995 season had the Tigers in the top 25 of every poll. Clemson won its last five regular season games, including four wins by at least 17 points. West's Tigers were picked fifth in the ACC preseason poll that year, but, thanks to the third best offense in Clemson history and a defense that ranked 10th in the nation against scoring, Clemson finished third in the ACC standings with a 6-2 record, its best league finish since the Tigers won the ACC title in 1991.

The 1995 campaign was one in which Clemson excelled in every area. The Tigers ranked fourth in the country in rushing, yet also led the ACC in yards per pass attempt. Defensively, Clemson rated in the top 20 in the nation in rushing defense, passing efficiency defense and turnover margin. In terms of special teams, Clemson was the only school in the nation to have an individual ranked in the top 25 in punting, placekicking, punt returns and kickoff returns.

The 1996 season saw Clemson win five of its last six regular season games, including a victory at 15th ranked Virginia, just the third road win over a ranked team in the decade of the 1990s for the Tigers. For the second straight year Clemson won the ACC rushing title and reached a top 25 ranking. Again, Clemson won 75 percent of its ACC games, this time finishing tied for second in the league standings with North Carolina. The Tigers were extended a bid to the Peach Bowl to face LSU.

Clemson's improvement on the field is matched with its improvement in the classroom during the West era. Last year 20 Clemson football players made the ACC academic honor roll, the highest on record. In fact, each of the three highest totals in that area in Clemson history have taken place under West and the team's cumulative GPA entering 1997 was a 20-year high.

West took over the head coaching position on November 29, 1993. Less than a month later he already had a bowl victory on his ledger, a 14-13 triumph over Kentucky in the Peach Bowl, Clemson's sixth bowl win in an eight year period. With his debut in the Peach Bowl, West became the sixth coach in NCAA history to make his debut with a program in a bowl game. However, he was just the second coach in history to make his debut in a bowl game without previously coaching his new team as an assistant coach earlier in the season.

West was a mainstay of a Clemson coaching staff that led the Tigers to a 69-20-4 record and six Associated Press Top 20 finishes between 1982-89. During West's first tour of duty with the Tigers as an outside linebacker coach, Clemson played in five bowl games (winning four) and claimed four ACC Championships, including three in a row from 1986-88.

Clemson had a 44-10-1 record against ACC competition during his era on the Tiger staff, an 81 percent winning mark. Additionally, five of those Clemson teams ranked in the top 15 in the nation in rushing defense and scoring defense, and three ranked in the top 12 in the nation in total defense.

Clemson's 1989 defense ranked fifth in the nation in total defense, rushing defense and scoring defense and West's outside linebackers had a lot to do with that success. His top four outside linebackers that year all played in the NFL in 1994. The list of former West players in the NFL includes Levon Kirkland and Wayne Simmons, both of whom have played in the Super Bowl within the last two years.

West began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Tennessee (his alma mater) in 1977. He coached one year of high school football at White County High in Sparta, TN in 1978, then became an assistant at Mississippi in 1979. For the 1980 and 1981 seasons he served as an assistant coach at Appalachian State.

After his career at Clemson (1982-89), West became the running backs coach at Tennessee. During that 1990 season Tennessee won the Southeastern Conference and captured the Sugar Bowl with a win over Virginia. The Volunteers scored a school record 442 points that year and averaged over 410 yards a game in total offense, 205.7 rushing and 205.4 passing. He served as Co-Defensive Coordinator at South Carolina in 1991 and 1992.

In 1993 West took over a UT-Chattanooga team that had won just two games in 1992. He doubled that total in 1993 and guided the Mocs to one of the landmark wins in school history, a 33-31 win over #1 ranked Marshall. He concluded the regular season with a 45-42 victory over Furman. Ironically, his first regular season game as Clemson coach was a victory over Furman.

West earned three letters in his four-year career at Tennessee (1972-75). The Vols played in three bowl games and were ranked in a final Top 20 in three seasons. He was the co-captain of Tennessee's 1975 football team and played in the Blue-Gray All-Star game that same year.

He began his college career as a running back, but saw most of his playing time as a tight end. He caught 37 passes for 575 yards in his career with the Vols, including 16 passes for 233 yards as a senior. He earned a bachelor's degree from Tennessee in 1976 and was drafted by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers that same year. West played two years (1974-75) of baseball at Tennessee and had a career batting average of .305. He hit .367 in 1975 and was named All-SEC Eastern Division.

Born Thomas Cleveland West on July 31, 1954, he is married to the former Lindsay Watkins of Forest City, NC. The couple has one son, Turner.

The West Family meets at the Memorial Stadium Landmark, Howard's Rock.

Assistant Coaches

Clemson Assistants have coached in a combined 80 Bowl Games.

Les Herrin

Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Line

When Les Herrin discusses Clemson's greatest players of recent memory people listen with a keen ear. Now in his 13th year with the program, Herrin has tutored some of Clemson's greatest players. It all started in 1981 when he coached the linebackers on Clemson's National Championship team. One of his prized pupils was Jeff Davis, first-team All-American and ACC Player-of-the-Year.

In 1982 Johnny Rembert was a starting linebacker under Herrin and he became an All-American, then a Pro Bowl player (1989) with the New England Patriots. Three-time pro bowl defensive tackle Chester McGlockton, regarded as one of the top defensive players in the NFL today, was coached by Herrin between 1989-91.

Brentson Buckner, a 1996 Super Bowl participant with the Pittsburgh Steelers, who is now with the Cincinnati Bengals, also played for Herrin during that era. Last year, Trevor Pryce led the Tigers in tackles for loss and sacks and was a first-round pick of the Denver Broncos.

In his previous 12 years with Clemson he has coached in seven bowl games, been a part of six top 20 seasons and four ACC titles. Clemson has had at least one all-conference player coached by Herrin in 11 of the 12 years he has been with the program.

The Les Herrin File

At Clemson: In his fourth season as assistant head coach, 8th as the Tiger defensive line coach, and 13th season overall.
Previous Coaching Experience: High School - Assistant at R/S Central High in Rutherfordton, NC (1972-74); assistant at Lexington Senior High in Lexington, NC (1975-76); athletic director and head coach at Central Davidson High School in Lexington, NC (1975-79); College - Defensive coordinator at Appalachian State (1980-81); linebacker coach at Clemson (1981-84); linebacker coach at East Carolina (1985-87); outside linebacker coach at North Carolina (1988); defensive line coach at Clemson (1989-94); assistant head coach/tackles and tight ends coach (1995); assistant head coach/defensive line (1996-present).
Education: Waycross High School in Waycross, GA (1965); B.A. degree in Education from Western Carolina (1971); Master's degree in Health and Physical Education from Western Carolina (1972).
College Playing Experience: Lettered four years in football at Western Carolina.
Personal: Born February 18, 1948...He and his wife Shirley have one son, Deke, a student at Clemson.

Steve Ensminger

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

Steve Ensminger is in his 10th season as a coordinator at the Division I level, his first at Clemson. Offenses he has been in charge of have performed at high levels of success. Teams that have gained over 450 yards per game of total offense, and ranked among the nation's best in scoring have been prominent on the list of accomplishments of Ensminger coached offenses.

Overall, Ensminger brings 16 years of coaching experience to Clemson. This does not include his years as an outstanding player at LSU. He played in three bowl games for the LSU Tigers and when he graduated in 1979 he was second in LSU history in passing yardage, just behind Bert Jones and ahead of the legendary Y.A. Tuttle.

The native of Baton Rouge, LA was a four-year letterman at LSU and he still holds LSU passing records for touchdowns in a game (four) and longest touchdown pass play (82 yards). He was named the LSU team MVP in 1979.

Ensminger spent the previous three seasons at Texas A&M. Last year the Aggies averaged 404 yards per game, featuring a balanced attack that gained 230 yards rushing and 174 passing on a per game basis. Texas A&M averaged 29 points per game against a schedule that included five Top 25 opponents.

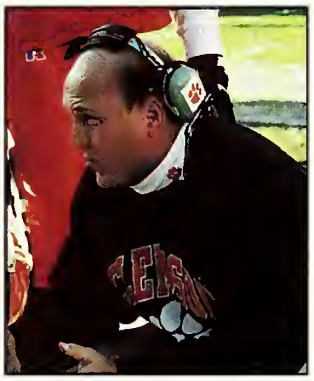
Between 1991-93 Ensminger tutored Eric Zeier and the Georgia Bulldogs. Ensminger's coaching was a prime reason Zeier set 61 school passing records. The Bulldogs ranked ninth in the nation in total offense in 1992 with 450.4 yards per game and finished 10th in the country in scoring with 32 points per contest.

The Steve Ensminger File

At Clemson: In his first year as offensive coordinator and quarterback coach.
Previous Coaching Experience: College - wide receivers at Nicholls State (1981-83); quarterbacks and wide receivers at McNeese State (1984-87); Offensive Coordinator/quarterbacks at Louisiana Tech (1988-90); passing game coordinator/quarterbacks at Georgia (1991-93); Offensive Coordinator/quarterbacks at Texas A&M (1994-96); Offensive Coordinator/quarterbacks at Clemson (1997-present).
Education: Graduated from Baton Rouge Central High School in 1976. Earned a B.S. in Physical Education from Louisiana State in 1979.
College Playing Experience: Lettered four years at LSU.
Personal Data: Born on September 15, 1958. Married to former Amy Marie Gonzales. The couple has two daughters, Krystalin and Brittany Rose, and a son, Steve.

Reggie Herring

Defensive Coordinator/Inside Linebackers



Reggie Herring is in his first year as defensive coordintor, but his fourth season with the program. He has projected a mental and physical toughness to his linebackers and that toughness should enhance the entire Tiger defense in 1997.

Among the players who have benefitted by his coaching is Anthony Simmons, already one of the most decorated players in Clemson history. He set a single season record for tackles last year with 178 and is listed as the Rising Star of College Football according to Street & Smith Magazine for 1997.

Herring is another example of an outstanding former player who has gone on to become an outstanding coach. A teammate of Rick Stockstill at Florida State, Herring left his own mark with the Seminole program as a player.

Herring was captain of the 1980 Orange Bowl team and earned AP All-America honors in 1980. The Seminoles played in the Orange Bowl and ranked in the top 10 in the nation his junior and senior seasons, and he was recently inducted into the Florida State Hall of Fame. He was a three-year starter at Florida State and the Seminoles played in three bowls during his four-year career. Florida State also had three double-figure victory seasons during his career.

Like many of Clemson's assistant coaches in 1997, Herring has a diverse experience history. He has been a part of successful programs at Oklahoma State, Auburn, TCU and now Clemson. He was defensive coordinator at TCU prior to coming to Clemson.

Herring has not made vacation plans over the Christmas holidays for quite some time. He has been a part of college football as a player and coach since 1977. In those 20 seasons he has been to 15 bowl games, 12 as a coach and three as a player. He has already coached in three bowl games with Clemson.

The Reggie Herring File

At Clemson: In his fourth season as inside linebackers coach, his first as defensive coordinator.
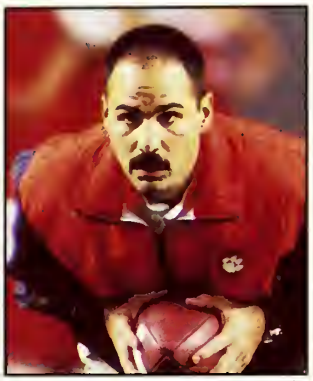
Education: B.S. in Criminology from Florida State (1981).
College Playing Experience: Three-year starter at linebacker for Florida State.
Personal Data: Born on July 3, 1959...married the former Lisa Ward, and they have two children, Caroline and Adam.

Richard Bisaccia

Running Backs/Special Teams/Recruiting Coordinator



Records in every area have been set since Richard Bisaccia became running backs coach of the Clemson Tigers in 1994. Raymond Priester is the only active player in college football who holds his schools rushing record on a game, season and career basis.

The Tigers have led the ACC in rushing each of the last two seasons and they have done it with strong rushing and a lack of fumbling. Clemson has lost just eight fumbles by running backs the last three seasons, including an all-time NCAA record low two lost fumbles in 1994.

Bisaccia, a Yonkers, NY native, learned how to hold onto the football as a four-year starter and team captain at Yankton College. Bisaccia was a free agent with the Philadelphia Stars of the USFL after his college career.

While the 1983 Spring season saw the end of his playing career, the 1983 Fall was the beginning of his coaching career. He was named the offensive coordinator at Wayne State in Nebraska his first year out of college and he has been in college coaching ever since.

Unlike many Division I full-time assistant coaches, Bisaccia has not made a lot of moves. He spent five seasons at Wayne State, then six seasons at South Carolina and is now in his fourth full season at Clemson.

Bisaccia probably wears more hats than any other Clemson coach. In addition to his time with the running backs, he is also the special teams coach and the recruiting coordinator. Clemson has had a consensus top 20 recruiting class each of the last two seasons. Clemson's freshmen defensive backs for 1997 were ranked best in the nation by SuperPrep.

The Richard Bisaccia File

At Clemson: In his fourth season as the Tigers' running backs coach and special teams coach.

Previous Coaching Experince: College - Offensive coordinator at Wayne State (NE) (1983-87); graduate assistant for wide receivers at South Carolina (1988); volunteer assistant for defensive ends at South Carolina (1989-90); tight ends coach at South Carolina (1991); running backs and special teams coach at South Carolina (1992-93); running backs and special teams coach at Clemson (Dec. 1993-present).

Education: New Fairfield High School in New Fairfield, CT; Earned a degree in health and physical education from Yankton College (1983).

College Playing Experience: Four-year starter and team captain at Yankton College (1980-83).

Personal Data: Born June 3, 1960 He and his wife Jeanne have four children: daughters, Michele, Elizabeth, and Madeline and son Richard Oakley.

David Bibee

Outside Linebackers

David Bibee takes over the coaching reigns of one of the legendary positions of Clemson football, the outside linebackers. This position has seen many all-star Tigers in recent years, players who have gone on to stellar careers in the NFL. Bibee's resume shows that he is up to the challenge and many of his current players could go on to join Clemson players of yesteryear in the NFL.

Bibee is in his 18th season as a college football coach. His experience in college athletics actually dates to 1973 when he started his college career as a player at Tennessee. He graduated from that school in 1977 and was a teammate of current Tiger Head Coach Tommy West for two seasons.

Bibee started his college coaching career in Volunteer land in 1977 as a graduate assistant, then became the junior varsity coach at Mississippi in 1978. From there he had stints at North Alabama, Middle Tennessee State, Austin Peay, Appalachian State, South Carolina and Tennessee Tech.

Bibee has been involved in all aspects of coaching, from recruiting to administration to on the field coaching. He has spent most of his career as a defensive coach, including 10 years as an assistant head coach.

He spent six years coaching for Appalachian State, ironically, Clemson's opponent in his first game as a Tiger coach. The Mountaineers won two Southern Conference titles and twice led the nation in turnover margin during his career as a recruiting coordinator and secondary coach.

David Bibee File

At Clemson: In his first season as outside linebackers coach.

Previous Coaching Experience: College—Graduate assistant at Tennessee (1977); Co-Head coach of junior varsity squad at Mississippi (1978); Secondary coach and recruiting coordinator at North Alabama (1979); Secondary coach and recruiting coordinator at Middle Tennessee State (1980); Secondary coach and recruiting coordinator at Austin Peay (1981-82); Assistant head coach, secondary coach, and recruiting coordinator at Appalachian State (1983-88); Assistant head coach and secondary coach at South Carolina (1989-93); Secondary coach and recruiting coordinator at Tennessee Tech (1996); Outside Linebackers coach at Clemson (1997).

Education: Graduated from Bristol's Tennessee High in 1972. Earned a B.S. in Health Education from Tennessee in 1977.

Charlie Harbison

Defensive Backs

Charlie Harbison has been at Clemson for only two seasons,but three of his proteges already are on National Football League rosters. Brian Dawkins, who ranked among the top pass intercepters in the nation for Clemson in 1995, was an NFL All-Rookie selection with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1996. Leomont Evans was a member of the Washington Redskins in 1996 after an All-ACC season in 1995, while Dexter McCleon was a second-round pick of the St. Louis Rams in 1996 and will see considerable action with that team in 1997.

Those three players were key reasons Clemson had 22 interceptions in 1995, one of the top figures in Clemson history and one of the top 15 totals in the nation.

Harbison has more experience at the professional level than any other current Tiger mentor. Harbison was a starter at strong safety with the New Orleans and Boston Breakers of the USFL in 1983-84 and also signed a free agent contract with the Buffalo Bills in 1982, 1985 and 1986.

Harbison also coached on the pro level with the Raleigh-Durham Skyhawks of the World League of American Football, with the Charlotte Barons of the MLFS and with the Charlotte Rage of the AFL. He has coached wide receivers, linebackers, and defensive backs in his career, but has by far his most experience as a secondary coach.

In addition to his Division I experience, Harbison also has had significant success at the NAIA level. His Gardner-Webb team of 1992 had a 12-2 record and played in the NAIA Championship game.

The Charlie Harbison File

At Clemson: In his third year as secondary coach at Clemson.

Previous Coaching Experience: College - Defensive back coach at Gardner-Webb (1984); wide receiver coach at Gardner-Webb (1992-93); defensive back coach at UTEP (1994); defensive back coach at Clemson (1995-present); Professional—linebacker coach for Charlotte Barons (1990); defensive back/special teams coach for the Raleigh-Durham Skyhawks (1991); defensive back coach for Carolina Cougars (1992); defensive back/wide receiver coach for Charlotte Rage (1993-94).

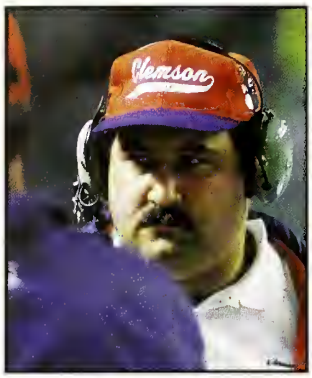
Education: Received bachelors degree in business administration from Gardner-Webb.

College Playing Experience—Professional—Boston Breakers (1983), New Orleans Breakers (1984), Buffalo Bills (preseason 1985-86).

Personal Data: Born October 27, 1959. He has two sons, Charlie and Stedman.

John Latina

Offensive Centers and Guards



Many preseason magazines have ranked Clemson's offensive line among the best in the nation and this ranking is testimony to the outstanding job John Latina has done since he first came to Clemson in 1994. Some might have ranked Clemson's line fifth from the bottom when he came to Clemson.

Since then, Clemson has led the ACC in rushing in 1995 and 1996. That includes the 1995 team that finished fourth in the country in rushing. The line produced four first or second team All-ACC players a year ago and now features all-stars Jim Bundren and Glenn Rountree, two converted defensive players who were tutored in the basics of the game by Latina three years ago.

Latina has been an offensive coach for a Division I program every year since 1979. He is in his third season coaching the centers and guards, a drastic change from coaching the entire offensive line when he first came to Clemson.

The Virginia Tech graduate, who once played against Clemson as an offensive guard (1978), has worked at Virginia Tech, Pittsburgh, Temple and Kansas State. He has already coached in a bowl game with four different schools, Virginia Tech, Pittsburgh, Kansas State and Clemson.

During his career he has worked with Dan Marino, who led the Panthers to a 9-3 ledger and the Cotton Bowl in 1982. Paul Palmer, one of the top rushers in NCAA history with Temple, was also a member of Latina's offense in the 1980s.

The John Latina File

At Clemson: In his third season as guards and centers coach, his fourth season at Clemson.

Previous Coaching Experience: College - Assistant coach at Virginia Tech (1979-81); assistant coach at Pittsburgh (1982); offensive line coach at Temple (1983-88); running game coordinator at Kansas State (1989-93); offensive line coach at Clemson (Dec. 1993-1994); offensive guards and centers (1995-present).

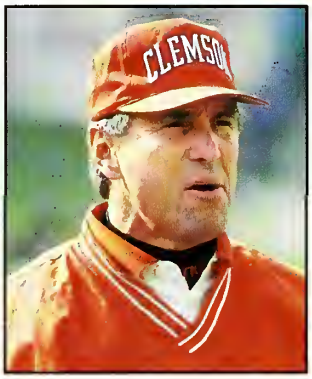
Personal Data: Born September 18, 1957...he and his wife Michele have two sons John Jr., and Michael.

Mac McWhorter

Offensive Tackles/Tight Ends



Mac McWhorter is an assistant coach who has been able to take his experiences learned as a player and relate them to his pupils. McWhorter was an All-SEC guard at Georgia in the 1970s and now is producing All-ACC offensive linemen as a coach. Senior Jim Bundren and senior Lamont Hall, both made All-ACC teams last year and are preseason All-Americans heading into this year.

McWhorter came to Clemson from Georgia, where he spent five years (1991-96) as an offensive line coach. The Georgia native had a successful stint in Athens, where he worked with All-American Eric Zeier from 1991-94, and a "tough-nose" running game in '95. He helped Georgia set numerous team records in many different categories in those five years. The Dogs led the SEC in rushing and passing during his career with the Bulldogs.

Coach McWhorter played football at Georgia in the early '70s as an offensive lineman; so he is no stranger to the surroundings of successful Division I football. He has played and coached in many big bowl games, including the Gator, Peach, Hall of Fame, Citrus, and Sun Bowls.

McWhorter was an AP All-Southeastern Conference selection as a guard in 1973. He was also an honorable mention All-American and was named captain of the Bulldogs. Georgia played in two bowl games during his career.

McWhorter has been a college coach each of the last 17 years and 12 of those years he worked with either Georgia or Georgia Tech. He also coached two years at ACC rival Duke (1990-91). Altogether, McWhorter has coached in seven bowl games.

The Mac McWhorter File

At Clemson: In his second as offensive tackles and tight ends coach.

Previous Coaching Experience: High School - offensive line at Duluth High School (1974-75); offensive coach/offensive line at Douglas County Comprehensive High School (1975-76); offensive coordinator at Douglas County Comprehensive High School (1976-79); Head Coach at Villa Rica High School (1979-80). College - assistant coach/offensive line at Georgia Tech (1980-87); assistant head coach/offensive line at Alabama (1987-88); assistant coach/offensive line at Alabama (1988); Head Coach at West Georgia College (1988-90); assistant coach/offensive line at Duke (1990-91); assistant coach/offensive line and tight ends at Georgia (1991-95); offensive tackles/tight ends at Clemson (1996-present).

Education: Received a bachelor's degree from Georgia (1974).

College Playing Experience: Earned four letters at Georgia as an offensive lineman. Captain of 1973 Georgia Team.

Personal Data: Born June 17, 1950...he and his wife, Rebecca have two daughters: Kasay and Katie; and a son: Mac.

Rick Stockstill

Wide Receivers

Rick Stockstill has been around successful programs and record setting offenses his entire coaching career. In his first year as quarterback coach at Clemson (1989), the Tigers set a school record for completion percentage (60%). The Tigers led the Atlantic Coast Conference in total offense for the 1991 season, and Clemson gained the second most yards in school history in the process.

In 1995 Clemson had its third most productive offense in history scoring over 300 points and gaining over 4500 yards of total offense. The 1996 season saw one of the top improvements in Clemson history over the course of the season on the offensive side of the ball.

Stockstill also tutored productive offenses at Central Florida and Bethune-Cookman in his early years as a football coach. As a player, he was the starting quarterback for Florida State. He guided the Seminoles to a pair of Orange Bowl appearances, a pair of top 10 rankings, and was the team captain in 1981.

It is no surprise that Stockstill has moved up the coaching ladder so swiftly because he is the product of an athletic family. His father has considerable experience as the head coach at Fernandina Beach High School in Florida. His brother, Jeff, was a starting wide receiver for the Tigers in 1982, a reserve on the National Championship team of 1981.

Stockstill is in his ninth year with the Clemson program and the Tigers have been to bowl games in six of the previous eight seasons. He joins Les Herrin and Whitey Jordan as the only assistant coaches in Clemson history to serve under three different head coaches.

The Rick Stockstill File

At Clemson: In his third season as wide receivers coach and is in his ninth season with the Tigers.

Previous Coaching Experience: College - Offensive coordinator and quarterback coach at Bethune-Cookman College (1983-84); assistant head coach and wide receiver coach at the University of Central Florida (1985-88); quarterback coach at Clemson (1989-1993); passing game coordinator at Clemson (1992-93); co-offensive coordinator and wide receiver coach (Dec. 1993-1994); wide receivers (1995-present).

Education: Fernandina Beach High School in Fernandina Beach, FL (1977); B.S. degree in Physical Education from Florida State (1982).

College Playing Experience: Earned three letters in football from Florida State. Captain of 1981 Florida State team.

Personal Data: Born December 23, 1959...he and his wife Sara were married on July 7, 1990, and they have two children; Brent, and Emily.

Stadium Emergencies

WHAT TO DO IF EMERGENCIES ARISE:

Please step back and give the organized EMS personnel room to work. Well-intentioned attempts to help by untrained persons interfere with the efficiency of the EMS system.

Most emergencies occurring at the stadium result from pre-existing medical conditions. Bring your medical identification card or wear medical identification jewelry.

INSECT STINGS:

Common at outdoor events. Treat immediately with ice and seek medical advice. If allergic, carry a kit from your physician with you.

HOW TO RECOGNIZE A HEART ATTACK:

The symptoms of a heart attack vary, but the usual warning signs are:

1. Uncomfortable pressure, fullness, squeezing or pain in the center of your chest lasting for two minutes or more.
2. Pain spreading to the shoulders, neck, jaw, arms, or back.
3. Dizziness, fainting, sweating, nausea, and/or shortness of breath.

EXPECT A DENIAL

Frequently heart attack victims deny they are having a heart attack. The event is frightening or they don't want the embarrassment of a false alarm. Therefore, they delay getting help by ignoring their symptoms or rationalizing, "It's just indigestion."

New therapies have been developed that can minimize heart damage and save lives if treatment begins with in the first few hours of symptom onset. "Time is muscle." Get help or get to a hospital immediately.

E. J. Stewart

Stewart is credited with first using communication from press box to sideline in coaching strategy.

by Sam Blackman

Somewhere today, E.J. "Doc" Stewart has to be smiling....and a little surprised.

Having served as head coach at Clemson and Texas El Paso in the 1920s, it's a sure bet he never thought the two schools would ever be competing on the gridiron 75 years later.

Stewart, at the age of 44, became Clemson's head coach in 1921 and he also coached the Tigers for the 1922 season. He coached Clemson to a 5-4 mark in 1922, including a 3-0 win at rival South Carolina. The native of Stubenville, OH was also signed to coach a third year at Clemson, but a larger school, The University of Texas, came calling and he moved to Austin for a four-year stint. After his stay at Texas he went to the University of Texas El Paso.

He graduated from The Scio College of Pharmacy in Sico, OH. He also attended one year at Mt. Union College in Alliance, Ohio and three years at Western Reserve University, Medical College in Cleveland, OH. A fine all-around athlete, Stewart played football and baseball at Scio College and played football, basketball, baseball, and ran track at Western Reserve University. He was the first athlete in Western Reserve history to win letters in all four sports in the same school year. Upon his graduation, he played, organized and served as head coach of various professional teams in Massilon, OH, which is still a huge football area.

Stewart began coaching college athletics at Mount Union College in Alliance, OH and newspaper accounts of 1907 stated that his football and basketball teams were the best in Ohio.

E. J. Stewart coached at both Clemson and UTEP.

In 1908-09, Stewart left Mt. Union College and was named Head Basketball Coach at Purdue University in West Lafayette, IN. He took over a program that had had four consecutive losing campaigns, but he led Purdue to an 8-4 season in his rookie year and a second-place finish in the Big Ten. He coached Purdue's first big man, 6-5 center Babe Charters, who scored a record 33 points in his first collegiate game.

Stewart then coached at Oregon State in 1911 and won the Pacific Coast Championship in basketball his first season. (You want to stump friends at a local watering hole? Ask them what former Clemson football coach once won a Pac-10 basketball championship.)

Stewart left Oregon State in 1916 and was hired as head football coach and basketball coach at Nebraska. At Nebraska he led the Cornhuskers to a combined record of 11-4 for the 1916-17 seasons and won the Missouri Valley Conference title both seasons. Among his 1917 victories was a 7-0 win over Notre Dame, whose assistant head coach at the time was Knute Rockne. In Stewart's two basketball seasons at Nebraska he compiled a record of 29-23.

World War I took Stewart away from coaching for a period of time, and when he returned from his stint in the service Stewart left the coaching ranks and entered the auto industry as President of Stewart Motor Company. But, the economic times were not kind to Stewart, so he began pursuing a job in his first love, coaching.

Clemson was impressed with his resume and hired Stewart for the 1921 season. The team struggled to a 1-6-2 record, but improved to the 5-4 mark in 1922. His final year was the first "Homecoming" game, a tradition that is still going strong today. Stewart also coached the Clemson basketball team during his two seasons, compiling a 19-19 record, including a fine 11-6 mark in 1922-23.

At Texas, Stewart had an 8-0-1 mark in 1923 and finished second in the Southwest Conference. A couple of years removed from selling cars, Stewart was one of the top coaches in the country. His 1925 Texas team also finished second in the Southwest. In 1927, after a mediocre 1926 season at Texas (5-4), Stewart moved to UTEP where he was 2-2-2 in 1927 and 3-4-1 in 1928. That was his final season as a college coach.

E.J. Stewart's Career Record

School	Year	Record
Oregon State	1913	3-2-3
Oregon State	1914	7-0-2
Oregon State	1915	5-3-0
Nebraska	1916	3-1-0
Nebraska	1917	5-2-0
Clemson	1921	1-6-2
Clemson	1922	5-4
Texas	1923	8-0-1
Texas	1924	5-3-1
Texas	1925	6-2-1
Texas	1926	5-4-0
Texas-El Paso	1927	2-2-2
Texas-El Paso	1928	3-4-1

Stewart is believed to be one of, if not the first coach to use communication from the press box or top of the stands to the field while the game was in progress. Some coaches at Harvard claimed to have come up with the idea, but Stewart used it at Oregon State. He first tested the idea during the Oregon vs. Oregon State game in 1913.

After he went to Nebraska he again used the telephone communications technique during a Thanksgiving Day game at Nebraska against Syracuse, a game he lost 10-9. Seated on the top of the covered North stands, he used the vantage point to get a better view of the line blocking and player matchups on every play. It is not known if he used this at Clemson, but obviously everyone uses this means of communications during football games at all levels today.

Stewart seemed to enjoy his days at Clemson and remarked about the school and the support of the student body in a 1923 letter to the student newspaper, The Tiger.

"I know that Clemson is filled with a spirit that can not be conquered and I know that they are given the most devoted backing possible. The student body and alumni pick the teams up and make them win against odds that are seemingly against them. I know of no other school in the country whose men fight harder and whole-heartedly than the Clemson Tigers."

It's quite interesting that a coach in the 1920s walked the sidelines of both schools that are meeting today for the first time, especially when you consider the geography. It must be a small world afterall.

Memorial Stadium

Death Valley is the 10th largest on-campus stadium in the U.S.

In 1991, two very special anniversaries in the Clemson football tradition were observed. Not only did the 1991 season mark the 10th anniversary of Clemson's National Championship season, but it also marked the 50th birthday of the place where the Tigers won six games that season: Memorial Stadium.

In the first 55 years of Memorial Stadium, Clemson has a record of 192-71-7, including a 34-9-1 ledger over the last seven seasons. Clemson had a 16-game unbeaten streak at home between 1990-92 and has a career winning ratio of 72.4 percent.

The stadium has definitely been good to the Tigers who call it home, but the stadium was constructed against the advice of at least one Clemson coach. Just before head coach Jess Neely left for Rice University after the 1939 season, he gave Clemson a message. "Don't ever let them talk you into building a big stadium," he said. "Put about 10,000 seats behind the Y.M.C.A. That's all you'll ever need'.

Instead of following Coach Neely's advice, however, Clemson officials decided to build the new stadium in a valley on the western part of campus. The place would take some clearing-there were many trees, but luckily there were no hedges.

The crews went to work: clearing, cutting, pouring, and forming. Finally, on September 19, 1942, Clemson Memorial Stadium opened with the Tiger football team thrashing Presbyterian College, 32-13. Those 20,000 seats installed for Opening Day would soon grow; and grow and grow. This year Clemson celebrates its 56th year in this outstanding facility.

When the original part of the stadium was built in the early 40's, much of the work was done by scholarship athletes, including many football players. The first staking out of the stadium was done by two members of the football team, A.N. Cameron and Hugh Webb. Webb returned to Clemson years later to be an architecture professor, and Cameron went on to become a civil engineer in Louisiana.

The building of the stadium did not proceed without a few problems. One day during the clearing of the land, one young football player proudly announced that he was not allergic to poison oak. He then commenced to attack the poison oak with a swing blade, throwing the plants to and fro. The next day, however, the boy was swollen twice his size and had to be put in the hospital.

There are many other stories about the stadium including one stating that Frank Howard put a chew of tobacco in each corner of the stadium as the concrete poured.

Howard says that the seeding of the grass caused a few problems. "About 40 people and I laid sod on the field," he says. "After three weeks, on July 15, we had only gotten halfway through.

"I told them that it had taken us three weeks to get that far, and I would give them three more week's pay for however long it took. I also told them we would have 50 gallons of ice cream when we got through. After that it took them three days to do the rest of the field. Then we sat down in the middle of the field and ate up that whole 50 gallons."

Howard says that on the day of the first game in the stadium,"the gates were hung at 1:00 pm and we played at 2:00 pm." But that would be all of the construction for a while. Then in 1958, 18,000 sideline seats were added and, in 1960, a total of 5,658 West end zone seats were added in response to increasing attendance. With the large end zone,"Green Grass" section, this expansion increased capacity to about 53,000.

Later, upper decks were added to each side of the stadium as crowds swelled-the first one in 1978 and the second in 1983. This increased capacity to over 80,000 which makes it one of the 10 largest on-campus stadiums in the country.

The effect spiraling inflation has had in this century can be dramatically seen in the differences in stadium construction. The original part of the stadium was built at a cost of $125,000 or at $6.25 a seat. The newest upper deck was finished in 1983 at a cost of $13.5 million, or $866 a seat.

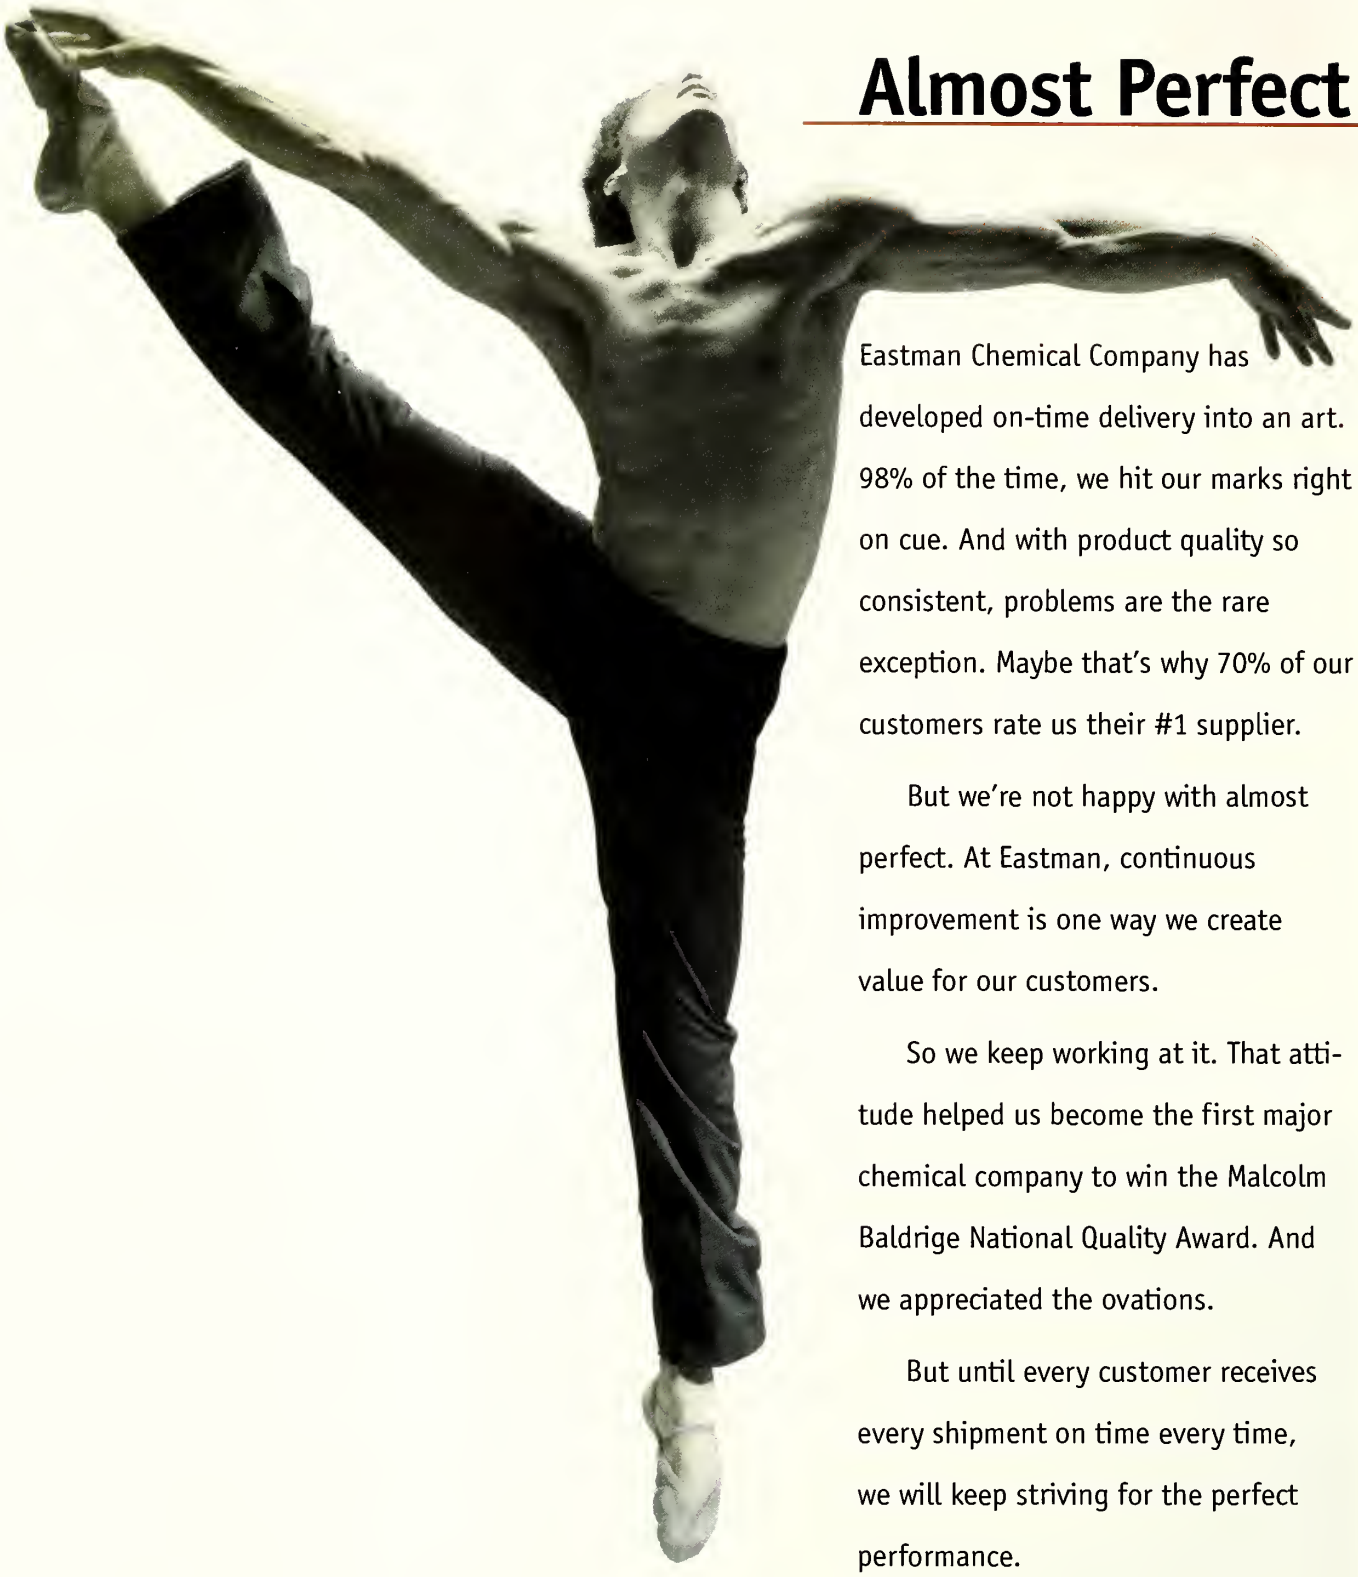
Through the years, Memorial Stadium has become known as "Death Valley." It was tagged this by the late Presbyterian coach, Lonnie McMillan. After bringing his P.C. teams to Clemson for years and getting whipped, McMillan said the place was like Death Valley. A few years later the name stuck.

On November 16, 1974 the playing surface was named Frank Howard Field for the legendary coach because of his long service and dedication to the University.

Luckily, the stadium wasn't built behind the Y.

Clemson has won over 70 percent of its games in Memorial Stadium since the facility opened in 1942.

Almost Perfect



Eastman Chemical Company has developed on-time delivery into an art. 98% of the time, we hit our marks right on cue. And with product quality so consistent, problems are the rare exception. Maybe that's why 70% of our customers rate us their #1 supplier.

But we're not happy with almost perfect. At Eastman, continuous improvement is one way we create value for our customers.

So we keep working at it. That attitude helped us become the first major chemical company to win the Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award. And we appreciated the ovations.

But until every customer receives every shipment on time every time, we will keep striving for the perfect performance.

Let your friends at Eastman demonstrate the art of service and quality. Call 800-EASTMAN.

Student-Athlete Enrichment

Clemson has one of three certified student-athlete enrichment programs in the nation.

Clemson University's commitment to provide its student-athletes with the very best of facilities is evident in many ways. From the soaring upper decks of Memorial Stadium, to the state-of-the-art strength training facility, young men and women from all 18 of Clemson's varsity sports have the very best in facilities for training and competition. Vickery Hall is no exception, as the $3 million structure is as impressive aesthetically as any of the other facilities. But the importance of Vickery Hall to the Clemson University Athletic Department is not found in the structure itself, but in the many programs that the building houses.

Vickery Hall opened in the spring of 1991 and was the first in the country built solely for the all-around education of student-athletes. The two-story, 27,000 square -foot building is open throughout the day and into the evening to accommodate the extended schedules of student-athletes.

The mission of the Student-Athlete Enrichment Programs is to monitor, guide, and encourage student-athletes to fulfill their long term goal, and to achieve their academic and career potential.

Vickery Hall focuses on three primary areas to meet the student-athlete's needs.

Academic Support

Clemson's Student-Athlete Enrichment Programs have provided one of the best academic support and advising programs in the nation.

The proof is in the statistics. A record number of Clemson student-athletes made the academic honor roll in 1997. Eight of Clemson's 13 Sports programs had a higher GPA than the student body average in the 1997 Spring semester. Twenty Clemson football players were on the ACC academic honor roll for the 1996-97 academic year, an all-time record. The Tiger football team had an all-time record GPA for the entire year in 1996-97. The Academic Counselor performs a variety of duties to track academic progress. Their duties include providing assistance in registration and priority scheduling, contacting faculty, personally checking classes, recording information, counseling sessions with student-athletes, providing diagnostic testing, and directing career aspirations.

One of the most prestigious programs that has received recognition essential to the growth of Vickery Hall is the tutorial program.

The Student-Athlete Enrichment Program has been granted a Level 1 certification from the College of Reading and Learning Association, International Tutor Certification Program. Of the 160 programs certified by CRLA, the Clemson Student-Athlete Enrichment Program is one of three student-athlete programs in the country to achieve this distinction.

Having tutor certification enables student-athletes to be provided the highest quality of academic assistance possible. Approximately 80 tutors are hired to provide academic support in the many subject areas offered.

The Department of Student-Athlete Enrichment Programs has recognized the need for students to have access to high-quality computing equipment and has made a commitment to provide the student-athletes at Clemson with the largest computer lab in the country. Located on the first floor of Vickery Hall is the Department of Student-Athlete Enrichment Programs' Microcomputer Laboratory. The lab is open seven days a week, for 16 hours on Monday through Thursday, and limited time on Saturday and Sunday. During exam periods the lab hours are extended.

The lab staff has a full-time computer manager, and also graduate students, many of whom are pursuing advanced degrees in computer science. Lab staff members are available for tutoring of any Computer Science course, as well as the many management, engineering and business courses that deal with personal computers.

The Student-Athlete Enrichment Program is committed to providing state-of-the-art computing facilities. New computers have recently been purchased bringing the lab to a state of the art facility. Over 40 computers are available for student-athletes.

All computers are fully connected to the internet allowing for access of computers throughout the world for research and communication.

Personal Growth Program

One of the most important programs that helps student-athletes reach their full potential and engage successfully in this college experience is the Personal Growth and Development Program.

The purpose of this program is to assist the student-athlete in making a successful transition into his/her university and athletic life. These programs will provide the student-athlete the opportunity to examine and explore issues and topics pertaining to his/her values, personal health and wellness, behavior, and goals. The specific topics will encompass both general transition issues and specific athletic issues as well.

Career Assistance Program

The Career Assistance Program provides student-athletes an opportunity to fulfill career aspirations by participating in various career seminars offered by the staff at Vickery Hall. The philosophy of this program is to provide student-athletes with job searching skills and strategies, internships, practicum experience as well as summer employment. These programs are designed to address specific career opportunities through a program that uses each year to gain information on the student-athletes.

By using the resources available to the University, Alumni Center and the Athletic Department, Clemson is working to establish a network of businesses, companies, and executives who will help assist with The Summer Employment Assistance Program. The program's main goal is to provide the student-athlete with job experience and a work history, which student athletes can apply to their academic discipline.

The Career Assistance Program is coordinated from the academic colleges, the Placement Center, and through the Athletic Department contacts. This program is designed to better prepare the student-athlete for full-time employment and focuses on resume writing and interview techniques.

Clemson has a staff of 11 full-time employees to work with Tiger student-athletes in various self-enrichment programs.

Ed Altman

Clemson center has battled through eight operations to provide key role on offensive line.

By Amy Moore

Winston Churchill once said, "Courage is the first of human qualities, because it is the quality which guarantees all the others." Could Churchill have had Ed Altman in mind when he made this memorable statement?

Altman, a senior center, has certainly shown courage in his days as a Clemson Tiger. In his five years of collegiate football, Altman has tackled four knee surgeries, and four shoulder surgeries. So what keeps Altman sane through all of these surgical proceedures?

One reason can be attributed to his wife. Altman married the former Lee Ann Carn on June 1, 1996. Ironically, their first meeting was on "football night" at one of the weekly FCA (Fellowship of Christian Athletes) gatherings. According to Ed, "Getting married was the best thing I ever did. She (Lee Ann) is a constant inspiration to me and is always there for me."

An inspiration, no doubt, to endure such physical wear and tear. According to Lee Ann, "Ed is an incredible hard worker. He is not only dedicated, but his positive attitude and courage never allow him to give up."

As a freshman, Altman came in as a defensive player, but was soon moved to the offensive ranks to play center. In 1996, Altman was playing the best football of his career, splitting time with Jamie Trimble, when he suffered a torn ACL during his 15th snap against Wake Forest. This was certainly an incredible setback to endure. Altman still managed to work hard to get back on the field. An example of his hard work are his weight room statistics. He currently holds the Clemson record for the leg sled (1,525) and the bench press (507).

The hard work paid off in the first game, against Appalachian State, because he played 29 snaps, the most of his career, and graded almost 80 percent, one of the highest grades by an offensive lineman that day. He also played consistently against Florida State and Georgia Tech.

Besides his wife Lee Ann, Altman's family has been a huge inspiration in his life. His parents, Ed senior and Lucille Altman, still live in Waycross, GA where Ed junior once resided. Altman still remembers watching how hard his father worked throughout the week as a successful paint contractor; but, even more vivid to Altman was Sunday afternoon, which was simply spent with dad.

"On Sunday's when I was growing up, we would go out to the shop and spend the day together. He would carve me airplanes or helicopters, and the detail on each would be great."

Even today, Ed senior travels every weekend to watch his son play football, visit, and in general spend time with his 23-year-old son.

"My dad made me the man that I am today, all my morals, values and beliefs came from him. I see the man that he is and how much love he has for me, and that is so comforting. He taught me to be the strong Christian I am today, and as a Christian, I saw how much love my father had for me. Knowing that God's love exceeds that amount gives me great peace."

Altman is extremely close with other members of his family besides his mother and father; he was blessed with two sisters. Altman's sister, Denise, shared a special bond with her brother. When asking Altman who inspired him the most, one of the first individuals mentioned is his sister Denise and the great impact she had on him.

Sadly, Denise passed away after a long bout with cancer in 1992, exactly one year to the date (1993) that Ed signed to play football for Clemson.

"She (Denise) was always there for me. When things were going wrong, she was always the one saying 'you are a special person, you have to keep going, there is life past Waycross.' It is one of the reasons I ended up at Clemson."

Altman's other sister, Susan, currently lives in Homerville, GA with his 13-year-old niece Lacey. Altman enjoys being able to see the two of them during football weekends. He admires the love and support that Susan gives to her daughter, and finds a lot of similarities between himself and his younger niece.

"The thing about Lacey is that she is a lot like me. She participates in many sports as I did, and is trying to find her niche."

So what does the future hold for Ed Altman? First, on this year's upcoming open date week, Altman will again find himself spending his days recovering from another surgery.

"They are supposed to go in and clean up all the scar tissue in my knee. I should be back and ready in five days."

Beyond that, Altman will graduate in May 1998 with a degree in industrial education. He is specifically geared toward the manufactoring option, and will use the education to train workers in the industry.

Where do they plan to live? "Lee Ann and I want to travel while we are young, so we can see the different areas and find a place we can call home before we settle down and raise children."

According to Lee Ann, eventually they think they may find home out west in Texas or California, or possibly in the midwest in Minnesota.

In the end, no matter what the future holds, or where their lives carry them, it is certain that Ed possesses the courage to tackle anything that is brought his direction. For Ed Altman, courage is the key to hard work, dedication, and the desire to never give up and to never give in.

Bowl Alliance

The Orange Bowl is the site of this year's Bowl Alliance Championship.

The Bowl Alliance was formed in 1995 to create a mechanism for providing college football fans with the best possible bowl games, including a game between the two top-ranked college football teams, when possible, and to maximize the number of opportunities for a variety of high quality bowl game matchups.

The FedEx Orange, Nokia Sugar, and Tostitos Fiesta bowls have joined with the Atlantic Coast, Big East, Big 12, Big 10, Pacific 10, and Southeastern conferences, along with the University of Notre Dame to form the Alliance.

The champions of the Atlantic Coast, Big East, Big 12, and Southeastern conferences will appear in one of the aforementioned bowl games following the 1997 regular season.

The remaining two at-large positions may be filled by any Division I-A college football team eligible for postseason competition, excluding the Big 10 and Pacific 10 Champions, that meets any one of the following requirements:

1) has won at least eight college football games during the most recently completed regular season; not to include wins in either the Pigskin and/or Kickoff Classic.

2) is ranked among the Top 12 bowl eligible teams in either the AP or the CNN/USA Today final regular season polls.

3) is ranked no lower in either the AP or the CNN/USA Today Poll than the lowest ranked team selected by a Bowl from the Conference Champions.

In event that two or more teams tie for the championship of the Atlantic Coast or the Big East conferences, the conference tie-breaking procedures will be followed.

Team selection shall occur no later than Sunday, December 7. The selection order shall be as follows:

Selections 1 and 2 . . . . . .FedEx Orange
Selections 3 and 5 . . . . . .Nokia Sugar
Selections 4 and 6 . . . . . .Tostitos Fiesta

Mandatory 1 vs. 2 Pairing

The Federal Express Orange Bowl shall select any team ranked No. 1 in the AP Poll and any team ranked No. 1 in the CNN/USA Today Poll if the teams so ranked are different and two such teams are available. In any other case, the FedEx Orange Bowl shall select any team ranked No. 1 in either the AP Poll or the CNN/USA Today Poll and any team ranked No. 2 in either the AP Poll or the CNN/USA Today Poll if two teams so ranked are available. All other team selections shall come from the pool of teams specified above and will be at the discretion of the participating bowls.

ACC Bowl Options

#1 ACC Team—The Bowl Alliance will take the ACC Champion.

#2 ACC Team—The Gator Bowl will take the #2 team from the ACC against the #2 team from the Big East. Should two ACC teams be chosen for the Alliance, the Gator Bowl has the option of selecting Notre Dame in place of an ACC team. The Gator Bowl shall have the right to select any team in the conference so long as they have achieved within one win of any other conference team available. The Gator Bowl payout is $1.3 million.

*#3 ACC Team—The Peach Bowl will have the #3 ACC team against the #4 SEC team. The Peach Bowl will have the second pick of the ACC teams after the Alliance. It has a minimum payout of $750,000.

*#4 ACC Team—The Carquest Bowl will have the #4 ACC team against the #3 Big East team. The Carquest Bowl has the third pick of ACC teams after the Alliance Selections. The minimum payout is $750,000.

*Remaining Bowl Options—The Poulan/Weedeater Independence Bowl is open on both sides, while the St. Jude Liberty Bowl has one slot open vs. the Champion of the Midwest Alliance.

To the victor of the Bowl Alliance go the spoils. Clemson captured the National Championship in the Pre-Bowl Alliance Era (1981).

Clemson's first impression just got better.

The Class of 1944 Visitors Center: Where the Clemson experience begins.

For thousands of prospective students, Upstate tourists and special campus guests, the Clemson experience begins at the University's Visitors Center. And beginning this fall, thanks to gifts from the Class of 1944, the Visitors Center is able to make an even better first impression for Clemson.

The Visitors Center has moved from its one-room location in Tillman Hall into a new 5,100-square-foot home on Alumni Circle near the Clemson House. The new facility, built and furnished at a cost of $580,000, was constructed as a look-alike companion to the existing Clemson Alumni Center.

The new Class of 1944 Visitors Center, which is physically connected to the Alumni Center, includes a reception area, a display and information room, a 49-seat theater, and offices for the center's staff and the student volunteers in the University Guide Association who lead daily tours of the campus and serve as hosts for special guests.

All alumni and friends of Clemson are invited to attend the dedication ceremony for the Class of 1944 Visitors Center at 11 a.m. on Friday, October 10. That's Homecoming Weekend, which is an especially appropriate time to celebrate the grand opening of the new front door to our Clemson home!

In 1996 the Visitors Center:

- Greeted 32,461 guests
- Conducted 514 regularly scheduled tours for 8,341 guests
- Provided 155 special tours for 3,384 guests
- Arranged 357 campus visits for 17,593 guests

Regularly scheduled tours are conducted at 9:45 a.m. and 1:45 p.m. Monday-Saturday and 1:45 p.m. Sunday. Special tours and campus visits are arranged upon request. Call 864-656-4789 for assistance.

Visitors Center Hours:

Monday-Friday 8 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.
Saturday 9 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.
Sunday 1-4:30 p.m.

Lamont Hall

Clemson Tight End having fun with new offense.

by James Brunson

"Attention passengers, we are preparing for takeoff. Please fasten your seatbelts and lock your trays in the upright position."

These words are familiar to any of you who have ever taken a commercial airline flight. However, they probably do not invoke the feeling of fear in you that they do in Clemson senior tight end Lamont Hall.

In fact, Hall is so scared of flying that he is forced to take medicine to calm his nerves before each Tiger plane trip. "Doc Byron Harder has to give me some kind of pills to calm me down before every plane trip," Hall said. This fear reached an all-time high during the Tiger's plane trip to Charlottesville, VA last November. Before Hall and his teammates could face Virginia on the field, they had to first find their way out of the turbulent skies and safely onto the ground.

The bad news for Lamont- "I left those pills at home that day!

"That plane was rough. Everybody was picking on me until it hit an airpocket and dropped about 100 feet. Then, they were all scared like me and they left me alone."

The plane was forced to circle for 20 minutes to expel some excess fuel before landing. "It seemed like forever. I mean forever. Everybody was listening to straight gospel music then. All the Tupac was put up, it was just gospel and praying. I thought that was the end!"

The Tiger's survived that scare and went on to upset the 15th-ranked Cavaliers 24-16 the next day.

The Clemson coaching staff had to survive a different kind of scare when recruiting the 6'-4" Hall out of high school. "I could have played basketball at a smaller school," said Hall, who broke associate athletic director and ticket manager Van Hildebrand's season and all-time scoring record at Clover (SC) High School.

"It was funny because I know his mother, and she came up to me after a game and said, 'Don't break my son's records, Don't break my son's records!' My coach heard that and checked on it, and I had already broken them."

Several factors steered him to Tigertown, however. "Tim Jones and Mike Barber had beaten on Clover so much in high school, I figured 'If you can't beat 'em, join 'em."

Ironically, the 1992 Clemson-Florida State game, a game Clemson lost 24-20, had a positive effect on his decision to become a Tiger. "All that Orange looked good. When they ran down the hill, you felt like you were getting ready to play. It was just a great atmosphere and I wanted to be a part of it."

Rated as the seventh best tight end prospect in the nation by recruiting analyst Max Emfinger, Hall red-shirted the 1993 season and has seen action in every game since. In 1994, Hall led the team with 13 special teams tackles. He also split time with Ed Glenn and Stephon Wynn at tight end, but did not have any catches.

The 1995 season saw Hall move up to first team tight end, but he only start two games because of the three wide receiver set that the offense operated out of that year. Lamont was in for 157 plays and continued his stellar blocking, but still had no receptions.

Last year, a breakthrough occurred in the Tiger's 19-3 win over Furman. After two years and over 250 plays, Hall finally had a pass thrown his way, and he caught it. It was good for 11 yards and served as a foreshadowing of good things to come. He went on to catch seven more passes during the year, including a 31-yarder against Maryland. His continued excellent blocking and newfound pass catching ability led Lamont to being selected second-team All-ACC. This was the first time since Jim Riggs in 1986 that a Clemson tight end had been honored by the ACC.

"I know it was mostly my blocking that led to me being named second team All-ACC. Freddie Jones (UNC) caught more balls, so that's probably why he was first team."

But, that might not be the case this year. Some publications felt Hall would be more involved in the offense because of the presence of Steve Ensminger, Clemson's new offensive coordinator whose offenses at other schools had the tight end significantly involved in the passing game.

As a result, Hall was named a preseason second-team All-American by Gameplan magazine and he was a first-team All-ACC preseason pick by many others. Hall had four receptions in the first two games, including three for 30 at NC State, the most receptions in a game by a Clemson tight end since 1991 when Ty Gibson had three at Georgia. "I love this offense," said Hall. "Not just because it has the tight end more involved in the passing game, it has everyone involved."

The fact that a Clemson tight end rarely got the ball thrown to him prior to this season led to the position becoming a fan favorite. "The fans go nuts when I catch the ball, so I want to catch everything that is thrown to me this year. I don't want to let them down, and I also want Nealon to keep throwing it to me."

With all of the honors and attention, one might ask if Hall has his eyes on the NFL? "Hopefully , if that opportunity comes, I will be able to take advantage of it, but if not, I am on track to graduate in the Spring. Right now I am just thinking about what this team can accomplish in 1997."

The education major wants to teach for a couple of years before breaking into the administrative side of the school business. "That's where the money is. Teacher's do not make a whole bunch of money, unfortunately, so I'd like to be on the administrative side of things."

Hopefully he won't have to take a lot of business trips that involve flying in an airplane.

Hall has a fear of flying, but is not afraid to make receptions over the middle or make big plays on special teams. He has three fumble recoveries on special teams in his career.

Clemson Traditions

Clemson is 23-1-2 in games played on Homecoming since 1970.

Death Valley

Name synonymous with Clemson Memorial Stadium. The Stadium was dubbed this affectionate title by the late Lonnie McMillian, a former coach at Presbyterian. He used to take his teams to play at Clemson, and they rarely scored, never mind gained a victory. Once he told the writers he was going to play Clemson up at Death Valley because his teams always got killed. It stuck somewhat, but when Frank Howard start calling it that in the fifties, the term really caught on. It is now in its 56th year.

Many people think the name is derived from the fact that there rests a cemetary outside the fence on the pressbox site of the stadium. But, although it would make sense, the name was first coined by Lonnie McMillian.

First Friday Parade

The Clemson football season kicks off each year with the annual First Friday Parade. The once a year event takes place on the Friday afternoon prior to the first home football game. Floats from various fraternities and sororities and other campus organizations are represented in the parade that rolls down main street in Clemson. The parade culminates at the Amphitheatre in the middle of campus where the first Pep Rally of the year takes place.

The Grand Marshall of the Parade is featured at the Pep Rally. Recent Grand Marshall's have ranged from current PGA professional Dillard Pruitt, to College Football Hall of Fame legends Jess Neely and Frank Howard, to noted television announcers Brent Musburger and Ara Parseghian.

Homecoming

Clemson holds a classic homecoming every year. Displays by fraternities and sororities that are months in the making, are built on Bowman Field the week prior to the Homecoming Weekend. It is an event that draws alumni and friends of Clemson from all over the country.

The Friday evening prior to the game, Tigerama is held in Death Valley, an event that attacts over 35,000 fans. The Homecoming Queen and her court are presented in addition to Homecoming skits, a pep rally and a large and loud fireworks display.

The first homecoming game played at Clemson took place on September 30, 1922 when Clemson met Centre. Clemson has a 53-17-3 record on Homecoming games over the years, a .743 winning percentage and has outscored the opposition 1547-955 in those previous 73 games. The average margin of victory is 21 to 13. Clemson has been especially successful on Homecoming in recent years, posting a 23-1-2 record since 1970.

"Death Valley really lives up to its image. I was impressed with this stadium. When you put 80,000 people in here, it really feels like they are on top of you. I would hate to be Georgia Tech or whoever else comes in here."

Steve Young, San Francisco 49ers

Orange Pants

The tradition of the Clemson team wearing orange pants is new according to tradition standards. The Tigers first wore the all orange uniform for the final game of the 1980 season against South Carolina. Clemson upset the 14th ranked Gamecocks and Heisman Trophy winner George Rogers, 27-6. The victory set the stage for Clemson's National Championship run of 1981.

Overall, Clemson is 30-7 in Orange pants since that 1980 game, including a 17-1 record in games played in the month of November. The Tigers had an eight-game winning streak in orange pants snapped in the 1996 Peach Bowl against LSU. Clemson has nine wins over top 20 opponents when wearing Orange pants, including the 22-15 National Championship clinching win over Nebraska in the 1982 Orange Bowl.

Rock, Howard's

When the Clemson team gathers to Run Down the Hill the players rub Howard's Rock because of the mystical powers it is supposed to give Clemson players. The rock is mounted on a pedestal at the top of the hill and was given to Coach Frank Howard by a friend (S.C. Jones' 19) who picked it up in Death Valley, CA. The Rock was first placed on the pedestal at the top of the hill on September 24, 1966, a game Clemson won 40-35 over Virginia. The team started rubbing the rock for the first game of 1967, a 23-6 win over Wake Forest on September 23, 1967.

Clemson players have been rubbing Howard's Rock prior to running down the hill since 1967.

Running Down the Hill

One of the most exciting 25 seconds (about 35 seconds when Clemson dresses 120 players for homecoming) in college football from a color and pageantry standpoint. After Clemson's last warmup the team retreats to the home dressing room located under the West Stands. At about 12:50 (for normal 1:00 P.M. game), the team boards two buses and drives around the periphery of the stadium to the east side of the field. After everyone is properly collected, the cannon sounds, Tiger Rag is played and Clemson charges down the hill (exactly 100 feet top to bottom) and onto the field. It is one of the most celebrated entrances in sport. The Tigers have done it for every game since 1942, except for 1970, 1971 and four games of the 1972 season. In all, the Tigers have run down the hill 255 times heading into 1997.

How in the world did the tradition of running down the hill start? There is no long involved explanation, it used to be the quickest way to get to the field. When the stadium was built in 1942 the football lockerrooms were up the street in Fike Fieldhouse.

When the players were finished getting dressed they used to walk out the front door and walk down the street to "The Hill". Coach Howard continued the tradition when lockerrooms were finally built inside the stadium because Clemson fans used to get so fired up when they gathered at the top of the hill. That's when the buses came into use to spend the trip from the lockerroom to the other side of the stadium.

Running down the Hill is one of the greatest stadium entrances in all of sports.

Clemson Swimming & Diving

Clemson's Swimming and Diving's depth runs deep and its not just to the bottom of the pool.

by Brett Berg

Clemson Swimming and Diving dives into another year. After coming off a great 1996-97 season, the Tiger men's and women's swimming and diving teams look to improve on last year's successes. The women's team looks to defend its 1997 ACC Champion crown, while the men look to improve on their ACC finish and continue to break school records for the all-time fastest times in school history.

"Expectations for the program are at an all-time high," says Tiger Head Coach Bruce Marchionda. The Lady Tiger's depth should show again this year with the return of 26 of the 30 swimmers from last years Championship team. All-ACC performers Wendy Henson, Erin Schatz, and Jennifer Mihalik look to repeat their all-conference showings of last year.

The Lady Tigers won their 1997 Title thanks to depth and that should be a strength this year. The Lady Tigers defeated six-time defending champ North Carolina in their own pool. There were 14 finalists (top eight finishes) for the Tigers at the ACC Championships last year, with 11 of those athletes returning.

Coach Marchionda looks forward to the opportunity to repeat the feat, Clemson's first ACC women's title since 1989. "It will take an extraordinary effort on our part and not only for the returning swimmers to continue their line of improvement, but also for the freshmen to step up and have an impact on the program. Obviously if we are able to do that, then we have a legitimate shot at repeating for the ACC Championships and moving up into the national rankings. Our goal is to get into the top 15 this year and the top 10 in following years."

The Clemson men's team looks to improve on a year where Tiger swimmers broke four individual records and two relay records with the fastest times in Clemson history. In all there are 12 men returning who are ranked in the Clemson All-Time Top-10.

Coach Marchionda likes the men's teams future. "We feel like this is potentially the best team that we have had. They have the ability to challenge for the top three spots at the conference championship. The future looks very bright, we have some great leaders, as well as a very talented freshman class. We have built the program to a point where we can be competitive with anyone in the conference."

In the sprint freestyle, Mike Pridemore, a top-10 time holder, Sasha Novozhilov, and Donny Johnson return to anchor the sprint freestyle event. The big addition to this event for the men, is 1996 Olympic competitor Razvan Petcu, who automatically makes the 50 and 100 free strong events for the Tigers. The women will look to Kathy Lowry, Jennifer Mihalik, and Magdalena Kupiec, who are all ranked in the Clemson top-10 performers. Newcomers who are really going to help are Leslie Anderson and Danielle Goetz.

In the middle distance freestyle, returnees John Dunham and Will Maher, a dominant force in the middle distance free, will lead the way. Newcomers Drew Gessert and Will Rogers should both be a great asset to the Tigers' middle distance freestyle base. For the Lady Tigers, middle distance freestyle events will be led by Wendy Henson, with the third fastest time in school history in the 200 freestyle, and Erin Schatz. Both were NCAA national qualifiers last season. Christina Greig, a senior captain, along with newcomer Charli Reasons, will add to the depth in this event.

In the men's distance freestyle, Matt Maurer and William York are expected to build upon all-time top-10 performances and step up in ACC competition. On the women's side, Christina Greig, Erin Schatz, and Kasha Gawronska along with Stacy Finner will be the top four returning in the distance events. Newcomers in the distance freestyle include Joanna O'Kelly, Christina Brosche, and a transfer from the University of Texas, Carla Williams.

In the butterfly events, a very strong squad of flyers returns for the men. Scott Ayer and John Dunham, both on the all-time top-10 list , along with Wes Morrow, lead the way in this event. Sean Stockton and newcomer Will Rogers should add depth to the fly events. In the 100 fly events, Kendra Kelly, Amy Suppinger, and Kathy Lowry look to improve their all-time top-10 times in that event. In the 200 fly events for the women, Stacy Finner and Lisa Bartlett will be the stronghold for the Tigers.

The breaststroke will be the hardest area hit by graduation for the men's team, as Landon Harris, an Olympic Trial Qualifier, and Chris Anderson, a NCAA Qualifier, both move on. Dan Hoeller, a top-10 time holder, and Sasha Novozhilov, as well as freshman Alejandro Dubreuil, should help rebuild the Tigers in this event.

For the Lady Tigers, Magdalena Kupiec, who broke the school record last year with the fastest time in school history in the 100 breast, is leading the pack. Amy Suppinger and Sheila Humberstone, conference finalists in the 100 and 200 breaststrokes, Dori Glenn, conference finalist in the 200 breast, along with newcomers Danielle Goetz, Leslie Anderson, and Lauren Rafferty, should all increase Clemson's depth in the breaststroke.

The Individual Medley returns Scott Ayer, Wes Morrow, and P.J. Olson. Newcomer Alejandro Dubreuil will again make an impact, this time in the IM. In the 200 and 400 IM, veterans Lisa Bartlett, Erin Schatz, Stacy Finner and Agata Janhowski lead the way. Freshmen expected to make an immediate impact are Leslie Anderson and Danielle Goetz, who both have times coming in that would rank them in Clemson's Top-10.

Backstroke may be the strongest event for the Tigers, both the men and the women. The men return four all-time top-10 swimmers in the back events, as Adam Porter, P.J. Olson, Rob Etheridge, and William York look to improve on their best times. The women feature 100 and 200 back ACC champion Erin Schatz, and conference runner-up in the 200, Jennifer Mihalik. Other veterans, Kendra Kelly, Agata Jankowska, Kasia Gawronska, and Jennifer Mooney, along with freshmen Charli Reasons and Lauren Rafferty, will keep Clemson as a powerhouse in this event.

The Clemson diving program is on the rise as five new divers adorn this year's roster. The women return Aly Susterka and Summer Ecker, and add to that strength, high school All-Americans Jillian OrRico and Betsy Potter join the Lady Tigers. The men bring in three promising prospects in Jeff Thomas, Chris Anderson, and Andrew Garrett, who are all expected to make an immediate impact.

The schedule is full of top-25 teams this season and the ACC is stronger than ever. "We are getting national champions out of our conference, which is enabling us, as a conference to attract the best swimmers in the country," say Marchionda. "Of course that makes it fun, not only from a competition standpoint, but when you get a chance to swim against the best teams in the country you improve, and we feel like we are one of those teams."

IPTAY

America's Top Fund Raising Organization

IPTAY is widely regarded nationally as the father of Athletic Fundraising. It all started in 1934 and from a private meeting of a small group of Clemson supporters has sprung an organization that raised over $8 million last year. The organization plays a major role in ensuring that all 18 of the varsity sports at Clemson are given the maximum amount of scholarships offered by the NCAA.

The organization also has helped finance facilities that contribute to the well-being of student-athletes on and off the field. Vickery Hall is a 27,000 square foot facility that houses the tutoring and advising programs for student-athletes. It is a major reason Clemson student-athletes have had their highest cumulative GPA on record for five consecutive semesters.

While IPTAY is primarily concerned with athletic fundraising, the mission of Clemson University has not been overlooked. The IPTAY Academic Scholarship Endowment was created to help meet the need for more academic scholarships for non-athletes who are highly qualified academically. The IPTAY Academic Scholarship Fund is presently the largest scholarship endowment of its kind at Clemson, currently helping over 30 students at Clemson.

IPTAY Executive Director George Bennett has continued to keep Clemson among the best in the nation in terms of fund-raising by the establishment of the IPTAY Endowment Program. In April of 1994, he kicked off the beginning of the endowment of positions program at the 85th birthday celebration for former Clemson Coach Frank Howard. The endowments are secure with a $100,000 donation paid over a five-year period.

"This is a chance to broaden the horizons of IPTAY," said Bennett. "It gives an individual or a group of people an opportunity to endow a position that meant something during their college playing days, or to honor a person at a position. The money being endowed is going to secure our future as the interest is used to carry on our program forever.

The first endowment was for the head football coach position to honor the legendary Frank Howard. Howard coached football at Clemson 39 years, 30 as the head coach. During his tenure the Tigers won 165 games, 100 of which were against conference foes. "Former players and friends of Coach Howard made donations over the cost of attending the celebration program and that was enough for the endowment. Their gifts were a way of permanently thanking Coach Howard for all that he did for Clemson.

"Following Coach Howard's birthday party we began to look for an individual to help us support and promote the program and Bill Hudson's name came up. He was an outstanding player at Clemson who has been equally successful in the business world. We went to him and explained the program and its goals and that we were looking for his leadership to help get the program going, and he accepted."

Hudson, a 1956 graduate, was a three-year letter winner at tackle who played professionally for the Montreal Alouettes, the San Diego Chargers, and the Boston Patriots. He earned Pro Bowl honors in 1962. Mr. Hudson sees this program growing into a large part of Clemson's athletic funding. "When other people see information on the endowment program and learn what it is about this program will grow. Success builds on success. People who are looking to honor a friend or family member now have a great means to do that."

Besides the Hudson's family endowment four other football endowments were made and one managers position in the first year. Now there are over 30 positions endowed. The goal of the program is to get every position endowed. "From the free safety to the number three player in women's tennis, we hope to have every position endowed," said Bennett.

"We will likely use the Avenue of Champions as a physical place to honor these people further for the positions they have endowed. That will have plenty of space, so we will be working to have as many endowments across all of our sports.

"The personal satisfaction that they helped Clemson University, specifically the Athletic department, and that they are securing its future are the main reasons for becoming involved."

And with more involvement Clemson will have a very secure future for generations to come.

Executive Secretary George Bennett has brought IPTAY to unprecedented levels thanks to the position endowment program.

ACC Football Facts

Clemson was one of three teams nationally to have all of its games televised in 1996.

*The ACC is one of only two conferences to capture three or more national football titles since 1980. Clemson laid claim to the league's second title in 1981, Georgia Tech followed suit in 1990 while Florida State pocketed national title number four in 1993.

*The nine schools that take to the field this fall under the ACC banner have produced 322 first or second team gridiron All-Americans and 49 first-team academic All-Americans. ACC teams have had 1,358 players selected in the annual professional football draft, including 90 first-round draft selections.

*If success is best measured in terms of wins and losses, the ACC over the years has proved itself to be among the elite in Division I-A football. The ACC remains the nation's winningest bowl conference as the nine current league teams are a combined 76-66-5 in postseason play, including 22-16-1 since 1987.

*Three ACC teams, Clemson, Florida State and Georgia Tech, are among the nation's top 10 winningest bowl teams. Georgia Tech has the highest winning percentage in bowl play with a 17-8 record (.680), while Florida State is now fifth with a 15-8-2 mark (.640). Clemson is 10th with a 12-9 record (.571).

*Five of the ACC's nine teams were ranked at least two weeks in the AP poll in 1996.

*The 1996 season marked the eighth consecutive year the ACC had at least four teams participating in bowl games.

*The ACC is the only conference in the nation to have each of its schools play in a bowl game in the decade of the 1990s.

*ACC Football has drawn at least 2.2 million fans for six straight years. ACC teams played to 85.3 percent of their stadium capacity in 1996.

*ACC teams made an all-time high 56 appearances on national television in 1996. League teams made 28 appearances on ABC, 19 on ESPN and ESPN2, three on CBS and one each on NBC, TBS, Fox and Prime. Clemson was one of just three schools nationally (BYU and Boston College were the others) to have all of their games on national or regional live television in 1996.

BOWL RECORD BY CONFERENCE

CONFERENCE	APP	RECORD	PCT
ACC	147	76-66-5	.534
Pac-10	160	82-72-6	.531
SEC	278	135-130-13	.509

Mid-American	28	13-15-0	.464
WAC	135	58-72-5	.448
Big West	14	5-8-1	.393

*54 of the 72 conference games in 1996 were shown on live television.

*Only the Pac-10 with 13 players, had more former players take part in the NFL Pro Bowl at the conclusion of the 1996 season. The ACC had 11 with Clemson leading the nation with five.

*Eleven times over the past 17 years, an ACC member school has claimed the CFA Academic Achievement Award, which is awarded to a CFA member institution with the highest graduation rate among members of its football team. In 1996-97, the ACC Academic Honor Roll record was broken for the 11th straight year as 1410 student-athletes were recognized for their work in the classroom.

*The 1996-97 academic year concluded with the league pocketing three more national team titles and four individual NCAA crowns. Among the individual winners was Clemson golfer Charles Warren, who won the NCAA Championship at Conway Farms in Chicago in a playoff.

*The ACC placed at least one team in the top 10 in 16 of the 24 sports sponsored by the league. The league had 33 top 10 finishes overall and 84 teams competed at the NCAA championships of their respective sports.

*Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 59 NCAA and AIAW championships, including 27 in men's competition and 32 in women's. In addition, 100 men and 24 women have earned the coveted title of the NCAA champion.

Clemson is one of three ACC schools to win the National Championship since 1980. Above, Dan Benish (71) and William Devane (94) celebrate a fumble recovery in the victory over Nebraska.

Academic Excellence

Tommy West coached teams have had the top three ACC academic honor roll totals in Clemson history.

by Tim Bourret

Clemson student athletes had a 2.64 overall GPA for both semesters in 1996-97, the highest overall GPA for the athletic teams in an academic year on record. The overall GPA has made a dramatic, consistent rise since Vickery Hall was opened in 1991. The overall GPA was 2.33 in the semester prior to the year the student-athlete enrichment facility was opened.

"We are seeing a consistent pattern of solid performance by student-athletes in the classroom," said Ron Thomas, chairman of the Clemson Athletic Council. "This is the result of many good decisions that have been made over the last several years to make academic success a high priority. It is apparent the athletic department has the right people in place with the right attitude."

Here are some facts of interest concerning academic accomplishments of the Clemson football program and the Clemson sports program in general.

*Each of the top three academic honor roll totals in Clemson football history have taken place in the last three seasons, all teams coached by current Head Coach Tommy West. The 1996 team had 20 players earn a spot on that list with a 3.0 or better for the entire academic year. The 1995 team had the second highest total with 17 and the 1994 team had the third best figure with 11. Records for the ACC Academic honor roll date to the 1956 season.

Andye McCrorey earned two degrees through the help of Clemson's Vickery Hall.

*Twenty-four Clemson football players made the Clemson academic honor roll for the most recent semester (3.0 or better). Among the players on that list were starting fullback Sam Zanders, who made the dean's list, center Ed Altman, and starting punter Kevin Laird. Clemson's top three quarterbacks, Nealon Greene, Brandon Streeter and Slade Nagle, all made the list. Streeter made the dean's list for the semester.

*Entering the Fall semester of 1997, 96 percent of Clemson's returning football players had over a 2.0 career GPA. Eighteen percent of the returning players had over a 3.0 GPA.

*Of the 23 football players who entered Clemson in the Fall of 1991, 17 have earned their degrees, a 74 percent graduation rate. The list includes Warren Forney, Andye McCrorey and Henry Guess, who earned undergraduate and master's degrees from Clemson. Of the six in that class who did not graduate, three transfered and could have earned degrees from other schools, but NCAA graduation rate statistics count transfers as non-graduates for your program, even if they graduate from another institution.

*Clemson has had three academic All-Americans in the decade of the 1990s, Bruce Bratton (1991), Ed Glenn (1994) and Andye McCrorey (1995). Both Glenn and McCrorey entered Clemson with that 1991 freshman class. Glenn is working on his medical degree at Vanderbilt University.

*Clemson's starting offensive line tandem of Jim Bundren and Glenn Rountree were chosen first-team All-ACC academic in 1996. Both players made All-ACC teams on the field as well. Bundren was first-team All-ACC tackle and Rountree was a second-team All-ACC guard.

Bundren has a chance to become just the second Clemson football player in history to earn first-team All-ACC honors on the field and in the classroom in the same season twice. Steve Fuller is the only other player in Clemson history to pull off the first-team All-ACC double (academic and on the field) twice in a career.

*Clemson's 18 sports combined had a record 143 student-athletes on the ACC Academic Honor roll for the 1996-97 year. This is a 30 percent increase over the previous record of 110 set in 1995-96. Records date to the 1956-57 academic year.

Ed Glenn earned Academic All-America honors in 1994, and is pursuing his medical degree at Vanderbilt.

*A total of 56 student-athletes made the dean's list for the Spring Semester of 1997 and a record 159 student-athletes made the academic honor roll, 13 more than the previous record of 146. There were 14 student-athletes on the President's List (perfect 4.0).

*Nine of the 14 Clemson athletic programs had a GPA higher than the overall student body average (2.74) in the Spring semester of 1997. Four teams had their highest team GPA on record and five at least tied their record for number of academic honor roll selections in a semester.

Tiger Band

Today's halftime show features country classics.

By Amy Moore

No matter if the game is played at home in Clemson's Death Valley, or on the road, the sounds of Tiger Band are never far behind. Known nationwide for its precision marching, dynamic sound, and famous Clemson spirit, a football Saturday would just not be the same without, "The Band That Shakes The Southland".

On this particular Saturday, Tiger Band would like to recognize the members of the Tiger Band Student Staff. Without their hard work and dedication, the band would not be nearly as successful as they are today.

Similar to the previous home games, the Tiger Band will kick off its pre-game show with the traditional Orange Bowl march followed by one of the most celebrated collegiate fight songs, "The Song That Shakes The Southland...Tiger Rag."

Following Tiger Rag will be one of John Phillip Sousa's most renowned compositions, "The Washington Post". The Clemson University Pershing Rifles Company C4 will then present the colors as everyone stands to honor America in the singing of "God Bless America".

After the invocation, the crowd is asked to remain standing for the Pledge of Allegiance and the National Anthem, which is conducted by Clemson University Director of Bands, Dr. Richard Goodstein. Tiger Band will then invite everyone to sing the Clemson University Alma Mater.

Another noted tradition in this afternoon's pregame is the dotting of the "i" after the band spells out 'Tigers' in its traditional script form. Today, the honor of dotting the "i" belongs to Jim Creel, the 1997 Alumni Association President, who represents over 82,000 Clemson graduates.

At this point in the pregame show, the anticipation is basically tipping the scales as the band begins its preparation for, "the most exciting 25 seconds in college football." As the band members form a tunnel on both sides of the hill, the air is once again filled with the sounds of screaming Tiger fans. There is no question why so many individuals consider Clemson's pregame to be one of the most exciting in college football.

The pregame show concludes as the cannons fire and the Tigers come rushing down the hill into Death Valley. The game is finally ready to begin, and the next 30 minutes of play will be nonstop football excitement.

For this weekend's halftime performance, Tiger Band has chosen the theme "Country Classics". The show will feature several country hits, including "Tennessee Waltz" by Pee Wee King and the Golden West Cowboys, "Boot Scootin' Boogie" by Brooks and Dunn, Johnny Cash's "Ring of Fire", and The Carter Family's "Wabash Cannonball".

As mentioned above, special honor goes out to those individuals of the 1997 Tiger Band who put in even more hours than the average member, The Tiger Band Student Staff. These student leaders have been chosen as an elite group of individuals. This staff is unique among major college marching bands. Since Clemson does not have any assistant directors or graduate assistants like most collegiate marching bands, the student staff is given more responsibilities than other students.

This year's student staff is composed of: Band Commander Danny Goldrick, Vice-Commander Landon Hammett, Sgt.-Major Craig Bagwell, Drum Majors Landon Hammett, Susan Lark and Allison Smith, Uniform Officer Stokes Player, Equipment Officer Stephen Crowell, Librarian Jessica Moore, Twirler Captain Jennifer Satkowski, and Flag Captains Karen Karr and Alyson Burk.

The Tiger Band staff includes Dr. Mark Hosler, Tiger Band Director, Dr. Richard Goodstein, Director of Bands, Cheryl Hosler, Flag Line/Twirler Instructor, and announcer Tim Willis.

The tradition of excellence Tiger Band has exhibited for all these years continues to be appreciated by Tigers of today and those in years to come. A Clemson football season would not be complete without the spectacular sounds of the Clemson Tiger Marching Band.

Clemson University Alma Mater:
Where the Blue Ridge yawns its greatness
Where the Tigers play
Here the sons of dear old Clemson
Reign supreme alway.
Chorus
Dear old Clemson, we will triumph
And with all our might
That the Tigers roar may echo
O'er the mountain height.

Men's Track

Clemson hopes to repeat on 1996-97 academic year that saw two ACC titles brought back to Clemson.

by Brenda Rabon

Repeat the feat. This phrase will be in the back of the minds of all Clemson track athletes during each competition of the 1997-98 campaign. After an incredibly successful 1996-97 season that saw Clemson capture both the indoor and outdoor ACC Championships, head coach Bob Pollock and his staff will challenge the Tigers to a repeat performance. The Tigers set an ACC meet record with 216 team points at the outdoor championships.

Clemson track claimed 11 ACC individual championship titles and eight All-America honors along with the conference titles last season. In nine years under Pollock, Clemson has captured 12 ACC Indoor and Outdoor Championship titles. The Tigers finished in the top 20 nationally for the seventh consecutive outdoor season. The 17th-place finish as a team at the NCAA Championships, was only four points shy of a top 10 finish.

"The 1996-97 season was a successful one for the Clemson Tigers," said Pollock. "Our graduating seniors will be missed as they have truly represented Clemson in a first-class manner. The success will continue for our team as a solid group of upperclassmen return with a talented corp of new Tiger signees to set the stage for another championship season in 1997-98."

Cross Country/Distance

The Clemson cross country team returns five lettermen this Fall. The 13-member squad is led by seniors Jason Reckner (team captain) and Trent Kirk. An experienced squad along with eight newcomers have the Tigers excited and enthusiastic about the cross country season.

"We are looking forward to good things this year," commented Pollock. "Our team has gained experience as we now have two seniors with a solid support of four juniors and three sophomores. We also have a solid support cast of four freshmen who are learning and developing."

Joining the ranks this season is junior college All-American Joe Gibson, a transfer from Brevard College, who was named ACC Athlete of the week after his first meet for the Tigers. "Joe will certainly add depth and quality to our program," said Pollock. "He is doing a phenomenal job leading our team, winning two individual titles to open the 1997 cross country season."

The Tigers return a solid core of harriers this season, including team captain Jason Reckner. Pollock will look to Reckner to provide the senior leadership to this group of Tiger harriers. "He has contributed to our team not only in the indoor 5000m as he posted points during the ACC indoor championships last year but has the capabilities of helping us in the steeplechase and outdoor 5000m as well."

Junior Esteban Diaz also returns to the Tiger corp as a strong cross country competitor. He posted the top finish among the Tiger competitors in four of the seven meets last season. Trent Kirk returns as a three-year letterwinner in cross country. Pollock expects a strong senior year from Kirk who offers the team experience and leadership. He will compete in the 3000m indoors and the 5000m and 10,000m events during the outdoor season.

Junior Matt Tooman steadily improved during the 1996-97 cross country campaign, and Pollock hopes to see solid performances from him during the Fall. At the ACC Outdoor Championships, he placed in the 1500m competition and is expected to be a top performer in that event again for the Tigers.

Field Events

The jumps look to be the most solid area among the field events for the Tigers as three ACC scorers return this season. Field events coach Aaron James will look to Jason Brewer, Bryan Williams and Rudy Currie to step up and offer experience in the jumps.

Brewer was an All-ACC performer during the outdoor season with a second-place finish in the high jump. Williams also earned All-ACC honors, finishing as the runner-up in the triple jump at both the indoor and outdoor conference championships.

Dual sport athlete Rudy Currie will join the tracksters to compete in the high jump after the completion of the Clemson's football season. He added points for the Tigers at the 1997 ACC Indoor and Outdoor Championships.

Kenny Franklin returns to pull double duty as he crosses over from the sprints and competes in the long jump and triple jump. Teammate Joseph Ndiaye comes back as an ACC scorer in the triple jump during both indoors and outdoors last season.

Tony Lloyd is expected to offer great things as a newcomer to the Tiger ranks. He was a 48' triple jumper in high school and also competes in the long jump and high jump.

Leading the pole vault this season is David Hartzler who returns after claiming the indoor and outdoor championship titles. He boasts a lifetime best pole vault of 16'9 1/4".

All-ACC performer Damian DiCola and Tom Hopkins, who scored at the conference meet, will offer experience in the javelin throw. New addition Jules Fagan will also add depth with experience in the shot put and discus. Mike Craft was the runner-up in the National Scholastic Meet in the discus at 180'1" as a high school All-American. He will also add quality to the weight events."

The Tigers must rebuild in the decathlon after the loss of ACC Champion and NCAA qualifier Josh Scott. However, the coaching staff expects newcomer Wade Van Sice to step up to the challenge after training with the Tigers last season as a red-shirt freshman.

Sprints

The newest member of the sprints and hurdles corps is assistant coach Ralph White. White may be new to Tiger track, but he is not new to the track and field profession. Before coming to Clemson, he was the head coach at Allegheny College since 1987. He has also coached at Southern Methodist and George Mason.

"We are very excited about the sprints and hurdles this season," said White. "We have great senior leadership in Carlton Chambers, Aaron Haynes, Greg Hines, and Jeremichael Williams," commented White.

Three of the members of that number-one nationally ranked shuttle hurdle relay team are returnees to the Tiger program, including Jeremichael Williams, Greg Hines and Aaron Haynes. However, White contends that the Tigers can only accomplish more this season.

"With the addition of our three freshmen, Sultan Tucker, Scot McCray, and Tony Washington, we feel we can be as good if not better than we were last year," White commented.

"We also have some outstanding 200m sprinters as five sprinters have run 20.90 or better in the 200m dash." These athletes include Charles Allen, Shawn Crawford, Kenny Franklin, Jeremichael Williams and Carlton Chambers.

Clemson celebrated its ACC Championship in Atlanta last spring. Bob Pollock's Tigers also won the ACC Indoor Championship.

Football Scheduling

Georgia and Auburn on Clemson future schedules.

by Tim Bourret

So you are getting married and your entire family schedules its fall activities around Clemson football games. You call the Clemson Sports information office to get the 1998 schedule so you can plan this major event. Much to your disappointment, you can't get an answer to this question. You are told the schedule won't be released until December 15.

This is probably the most confusing issue we deal with in the SID office, hence this article to explain why we can't give you much of an answer.

Four years ago the ACC began meeting in December to determine each team's conference schedule. The reason for the delay ... television. The television networks wanted a schedule that creates good conference games each week. Obviously, for the ACC to be competitive with the other conferences when it comes to TV ratings it is imperative that there are marquee games each week.

To have a competitive game each week, you really can't do the schedule until the previous year is over. Even then it is a guessing game, but it is certainly easier than scheduling three or four years in advance. With ABC and ESPN expanding their coverage, almost every conference in the country is waiting to December or January prior to the season to release its schedule.

So, those of you who think a full schedule exits, hidden in some vault in Greensboro, you are wrong. Up until 1996 the Clemson SID office would tell a wedding planner a "tentative schedule" for a future season. We were emphatic about the possibility of changes, but when the changes were announced in December, we had some angry people who still went ahead and scheduled their events based on the old schedule. You can see by the chart on this page, that the 1996 schedule published in the 1995 Clemson Football Guide, and the actual 1996 schedule are dramatically different. Thus, it is senseless to publish a tentative future schedule.

1996 Schedule Comparison

That is the bad news for those of you planning family nuptials or reunions. But, we do know the non-conference games and those should stay the same. We do know that Clemson will play at home against Furman on September 5 next year. We do know Clemson will travel to Missouri on October 3, and the South Carolina game in 1998 will be at Clemson on November 21. But, if you are making plans for other dates, you have a 50-50 chance of guessing if Clemson will be home or away.

We have listed the tentative non-conference schedule through the year 2005. So if you are getting married in 2000 and don't want to have it the same weekend as a Clemson home football game, schedule it for September 16. That should be "National Clemson Wedding Day" for 2000. The Tigers will be at Texas A&M and since it is a non-conference game, it shouldn't change.

Speaking of non-conference games, we are publishing the list through the year 2005. Among Clemson's future non-conference games are Georgia, Texas A&M, Missouri, Tulane and Auburn.

Clemson and Auburn have not met on the gridiron since 1971, but will play a four-year series starting in 2005. The four-year contract will feature two games at Clemson and two at Auburn. The 2005 and 2007 games will be held at Clemson, and the 2006 and 2008 contests will be played at Auburn. All four games will take place on the first Saturday in September and are currently slated to be the season opener for each school in each season.

The first three coaches in Clemson football history were Auburn graduates. Walter Riggs, Clemson's first head coach and later University President, was Clemson's coach in 1896 and 1899 and was an 1893 Auburn graduate. William Williams, Clemson's mentor in 1897, was an 1896 Auburn grad, while John Penton, Clemson's head coach in the fall of 1898, had graduated from Auburn in the previous spring.

The Clemson vs. Georgia series will return to Death Valley in 2003.

Clemson and Georgia have agreed to a two-year renewal of their 100-year football rivalry. The two teams first played in 1897 in Athens and last met in 1995 at Clemson. The 2002 game will be played on August 31 in Athens, and the 2003 game is scheduled for August 30 at Clemson.

"We are excited about the renewal of this rivalry," said Clemson Athletic Director Bobby Robinson. "The two schools are close geographically, but the series has had an impact on the national college football scene. This series has been exciting for our fans and is good for college football."

This announcement means Clemson will have two games against Southeastern Conference teams in six of the seven years between 2002 and 2008. Clemson Head Coach Tommy West was also pleased with the addition of Georgia to the schedule. "I have been a part of some great games in the Clemson-Georgia series. Everyone affiliated with both programs is excited when Clemson and Georgia meet on the football field."

Georgia leads the series 39-17-4, but the Bulldogs hold just an 8-6-1 advantage since 1977. Three of Clemson's most thrilling victories in recent memory have taken place against Georgia. In 1981 Clemson defeated a fourth-ranked Georgia team 13-3 in Death Valley on the way to a National Championship. It remains the highest ranked win in Clemson history in Memorial Stadium. The Tigers won consecutive games in 1986 and 1987 on last second field goals by David Treadwell.

The Last Word

UTEP is making the furthest trip to Clemson for a football game since UNLV came to Clemson in 1993.

By Bob Bradley

Texas-El Paso is a fer piece from Clemson. Maybe that's the reason for this being the first meeting between Clemson and the Miners on the football field today. In fact only two coaches are common denominators between the two programs, E.J. Stewart (see page 41) was the head coach at both schools. He was at Clemson in 1921-22 and at UTEP in 1927-28.

Current Clemson defensive backs coach Charlie Harbison is the only other coach to serve both institutions. Harbison was at UTEP in 1994, his first Division I college job. He came to Clemson in 1995 and in his very first year the Tigers ranked among the top 20 in the nation in pass defense and interceptions. He already has three former players in the NFL (Brian Dawkins, Leomont Evans and Dexter McCleon).

The distance has effected the two team's ability to meet in football, but that has not been the case in basketball. There have been four games between Clemson and UTEP — all in various years in the Sun Bowl Tournament, and naturally, all in El Paso. This is the first time UTEP has ever come to Clemson in any sport.

Clemson's first trip out to El Paso was between Christmas and New Year's of 1963 when Bobby Roberts was heading up the Tiger roundball program. Back then, UTEP was known as Texas Western and possessed some of the fastest guns in the west. The Miners selected Clemson in the first round pairings, hoping to give them an easy trip into the championship game.

And that's exactly what happened. The forces of Hall of Fame Coach Don Haskins were 21-point winners. This meant that the Tigers would play the Baylor Bears the second night for third place, and Roberts was a little uneasy prior to the consolation game.

One of the officials who was going to call the game came in wearing a green and gold colored tie — Baylor's colors. Roberts knew he was in trouble. Baylor eased out a two-point win.

Clemson lost again in 69-70 and 82-83, but was Sun Bowl tournament champions in 78-79 under Bill Foster. Clemson beat UTEP by 11, then won the title with a one-point win over Texas Tech on a last second shot by Derrick Johnson. That shot was made at about the same time Woody Hayes punched Charlie Bauman in the 1978 Gator Bowl.

Returning a minute to that 1963-64 season — Clemson had opened the season with an overtime win over North Carolina in the Fike 'Cow Palace", but then lost four in a row before putting the skids on with a one-point win at Virginia.

On the day of the North Carolina game, Johnny Martin, who was sports editor of the Anderson Daily Mail, dribbled a basketball from Anderson to Clemson — a chore that took several hours.

When he arrived at Fike in early afternoon, the doors were open for him and he dribbled in for a layup, but missed the shot. "But," he said triumphfully, "I got the rebound."

Martin said the only problem that he encountered on his way from Anderson was that he double-dribbled somewhere around Sandy Springs when an 18-wheeler blew him off the highway. (I know that doesn't have much to do with football, but it is one of my favorite stories.) Not many sportswriters saw as many basketball games as Martin, and he was with the Tigers on that trip to El Paso that year.

As is the the usual case at most tournaments, each participating team has a civic club as its sponsor. Clemson's sponsor that year was the El Paso Jaycees. The Jaycee president that year was Jimmy Rogers, who later was president of the Sun Bowl.

The main purpose of the civic clubs was to see that the teams saw more than just the inside of a gym or the football practice field. Besides the basketball teams, also in town for the 1963 sports festival were the football teams from Southern Methodist and Oregon, who played the Sun Bowl game the day after the completion of the basketball tournament.

One morning at 7 o'clock all six teams showed up at a dude ranch out in the hinderlands of New Mexico for a breakfast sponsored by a club named the Sheriff's Posse. I never did figure out exactly what the creed of the group was except they believed in having a good time.

All members were wearing law enforcement uniforms and some of them (maybe the officers) were toting loaded (with blanks) six shooters — and they were shooting them inside this dining hall where everyone was. That'll start the bells ringing real early in the morning.

But probably the most unique thing that the Clemson crowd got to see was a trip across the Rio Grande into Juarez for some Mexican shopping and bull fights. Folks, I'll tell you right up front, the poor bull doesn't have a fighting chance.

Each bull fight consists of three suertes, as an American hockey game. But the word translated means innings, as in our baseball game. In the first inning the bull attacks men armed with lances and mounted on horses. These 'brave' people are picadores. They mainly are supposed to get the bull riled up by jabbing him with their lances. That's about all there is to the first inning, but the bull should be able to figure out that this is not going to be his day.

And the fans are getting warmed with ole, ole, ole — which means bravo. The second inning finds a bullfighter coming into the ring with a banderilla in each hand. This is a dart which he thrusts into the bull's hide right around the shoulder. Before departing, the bullfighter has used three pair of darts on the bull.

Ole, ole, ole.

The third inning is now upon us and the bull is getting weaker by the minute. Finally, the matador makes his appearance, making artistic and daring passes with his muleta, better known as the red flag. When the proper time has come, the matador raises his sword for a thrust aimed at the vulnerable spot between the bull's horns, causing instant death.

Successful matadores are treated as popular heroes. But if the first inning started with the bull and matador going one on one, I'd bet on the bull every time. But as the rules are set up, the bull never wins, although sometimes the matador receives serious injuries from the bull's horns. I saw eight bulls lose that day.

I'm not sorry that I got to see some honest to goodness bull fights that day in 1963. But I'm glad that football is on the agenda this afternoon.

Current Clemson Secondary Coach Charlie Harbison is one of the few football common denominators between Clemson and UTEP.
